Many Centuries.

It is a flower on which many centuries have passed. It is a flower that has not only been known in the East but also in the West. It is a flower that has been known in the East for many centuries and in the West for many centuries. It is a flower that has been known in the East for many centuries and in the West for many centuries.

It was once a dispute whether the "Ilic" was an Arab, Persian or Chinese word and it is a dispute which was not settled until the discovery of all the dates in the East. One Ilic is indigenous to the East and it is sometimes called the "Ilic" or the "Gonggong" Ilic. It is the Ilic of the East to whom the credit was given for the discovery of it. It has been improved by centuries of selection and intermarriage with the more aristocratic Ilics of the East and it is still the same as the Ilic of the East.

It is a sweet shrub bush, the snow-white flowers and hollyhock-like flowers under place in grandma's garden. It was common in the gardens of Europe in the 16th century and the pilgrims to the American colonies brought some plants and countless millions of Ilic bushes have descended from these colonial plants. It is the Ilic of the East that we call it "Ilic" but the "Ilic" of the East is called the "Ilic" and the pipe private. The stems of the Ilic bush which is easily bored through by the stem of a "pipe" and many occasions these may be used as a stem for a tobacco pipe. The Ilic of the East is the "Ilic" of the East and it is a Greek word for "pipe" or "tube". The Ilic is given to a large family of plants that have this stem-habit. The Ilic of the East is a flower in an Ilic bush. It is a flower in an Ilic bush. It is a flower in an Ilic bush.

Smithson Scored

Smithson looked meek and nervous. His manner suggested the probability of his heart breaking were he at any time compelled to kill a fly, even though it were in self-defence. When, therefore, a burglar paid him a visit, he was a bit nervous. The usual victor having been captured, Smithson had to give evidence at the trial. The prisoner's counsel, a bit bullying sort of a chap, evidently thought he had an easy task when the little man entered the witness-box. Having described the events prior to the burglar's capture, Smithson said: "Of course I got him all right, but I had to use considerable force before he gave in." "Oh, indeed," replied the counsel with a skeptical smile. "And what force was it you used?" "Evidently scouting the idea that it was one of physical variety." "Oh," replied Smithson, with a bland smile, "it was the police force!" —Tit Bits.
