PROSPECTUS

GUELPH EVENING MERCURY

HAVING removed to their new office in The Mercury Building, 24th Street, opposite the Great Western Hotel, the publishers have determined, in view of the elections, to issue an Evening Edition of "The Mercury."

It will be given every afternoon, and will consist of eight columns, and will be published at the rate of one penny per copy. Subscriptions will be taken by the quarter. Subscribers in town will be supplied by our own carriers, by leaving their names and addresses in the office. Single copies will be sold at the rate of one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy.

The Mercury will contain the latest intelligence from every quarter, and the most interesting news from all parts of the world, including the daily reports of the Atlantic cable, the New York, London, and other markets.

Special attention will be paid to Local News. Every subject of interest to the community will be given the place it deserves. The Mercury will be published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the Mercury is one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy.

General and Miscellaneous news, and reading matter for the family, carefully selected with a view to the interests of the community, will find their place in The Evening Mercury. The aim of the publishers is to make it a welcome and profitable visitor to every family in town.

Every care and attention will be given to the collection of news, and the preparation of the Mercury. The Mercury will be published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the Mercury is one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy.

Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of one penny per line per day. The Mercury will be published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the Mercury is one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy, or at the rate of one penny per copy.
