THE WEATHER.

TORONTO, Ont., May 3—11 p.m.—The pressure is considerably below normal tonight over the lake region and the Ottawa Valley, and highest off our Atlantic coast.
The weather has been showery in the lake region and the Upper St. Lawrence, and cloudy or fair in the other districts.

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Winnipeg, 28°—52°; Toronto, 46°—54°;
Montreal, 38°—62°; Quebec, 36°—48°; Halifax, 36°—44°.

TO-DAY'S PROBABILITIES.

TORONTO, May 4—1 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region (covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville) are: Fresh to strong westerly winds; generally fair weather.

—H. Blackburn, of this city, is on a visit to Winnipeg.

—The police magistrate's blotter was spotted this morning.

—E. W. Voegelé, of the Ancient Forester, Toronto, is in the city.

—Mrs. Geo. Bickell, of Bowmanville, is visiting her many friends in the city.

—Rev. H. C. Speller has gone to Toronto to attend the Baptist Young People's Convention.

—The auction sale of racks at the London Rowing Club boat house will take place on Saturday, May 14, at 5 p.m.

—The body of the late Henry Hamby, who was killed in Michigan, arrived in the city today, and was interred at Belmont.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, corner Talbot and Horton streets, have been called to Tilsonburg, owing to the death of a relative,
Mr. Wm. Cumming.

—At last evening's meeting of the Dominion Health Institution Dr. Roome was elected president, and Dr. Sweetland, of Ottawa, vice-president for Ontario.

—The Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Congregational Church will celebrate their anniversary Sunday.

—Rev. J. J. Swanson, B.A. of Woodstock.

—The Board of License Commissioners for East Middlesex met yesterday afternoon, issued several licenses and adjourned to meet Saturday, May 14, to issue the balance.

ment. —(Winnipeg Tribune.)

—John McNaughton, a clever type who graduated in the London ADVERTISER establishment, and who now holds a desirable position in Crede, Col. (on the Rio Grande Railway), is just now visiting his friends in this city.

—The funeral of the late James Halloran took place from the family residence this morning to St. Peter's Cathedral, and was largely attended. The following were the pall-bearers: Messrs. W. Bell, W. Good-burn, H. Morney, C. Kiekham, J. Lilliman and Ed. Carty.

—The Young Liberals have got "Ta-rara Boom-dee" down fine, and will sing
the famous song at the grand performance on May 17. The musical first part of this season's show will be magnificent. Gorgeous costumes and splendid stage effects will be added to other sparkling features.

—At the vestry meeting in St. John's

The tender roots of habit; to-morrow blossoms
Of the same, and keeps on blossoming.
And taking deeper root, until at last
It takes more work to move him from his corner.

—Than it does to stir a house dog from the rug
Before the fire.

—Then, when he thinks, good easy man,
His ways are settled for all time.

—Some busy woman comes along and says:
"Please move about six inches till I run."

—The sweeper over where your chair has been."
And lo, he splits the air with lamentations,
Loud, and deep and true.

—He cries, there is no rest this side of Paradise
For a poor man, weary and worn with moving around.

—Out of the way of sweepers;
And wishes he were dead.

—O, how wretched is that poor man who cannot sit.

—In last year's dust and grime until this year
Shall be two years ago last year.

—And when he dies, his hope and comfort is,
He will be laid in dirt never to move again.
