ST. JAMES' CATHEDRAL

Deadlock Between Bishop Sweatman

and the Congregation. [Special to Advertiser per G.N.W.]

Toronto, Nov. 4.—There is a serious quarrel in progress between the Bishop of Toronto and the congregation of St. James' Cathedral over the appointment of a rector in succession to the late Bishop Sullivan. The congregation is determined to have Rev. J. Desoyres, of St. John, N. B., and the bishop is just as determined not to appoint him. As the living is an endowed one, to which the bishop has the legal right of appointment, a dead-lock is cer-

Matters reached a crisis today, when the bishop served the following notice on the churchwardens of St. James': "I beg hereby to officially acquaint you that it is my fixed and final intention, as I have intimated to you on many occasions, not to appoint the Rev. J. Desoyres to the rectory of St. James' Cathedral. (Signed) ARTHUR TO-RONTO."

The action of the churchwardens is awaited with interest.

ED OF. London, Nov. 4 .- The fact that the British war office has received no news of the situation at Ladysmith, seems to effectually dispose of yesterday's continental rumors of Gen. White's capitulation and kindred stories, as, if the general had sustained a severe re verse, there is no reason to believe but that Gen. Joubert would be only too glad to forward Gen. White's official announcement of the fact to the nearest telegraph station, while had anything of such a very serious character reached a foreign government in cipher, it would undoubtedly have been promptly conveyed to the British government. As the Mozambique cable is still broken, it is impossible for any uncensored messages to reach Europe, with the exception of the dispatches of foreign governments. It is further pointed out that in view ance to the Boers, it seems obvious that the Boer sympathizers would make such an event known as quickly as WHITE WILL HOLD HIS OWN. The war office here is making every endeavor to communicate with Lady smith, so news may arrive momentar In the meanwhile, the best opinion is satisfied that if Gen. White keeps strictly on the defensive he will be able to hold his own.

A FUTILE BOER PLAN. The British experts smile at the Boer plan of campaign, which contemplates seizing Durban in order to prevent the landing of British troops there. They say it has one fatal defect, namely, that it ignores the British fleet, under whose gurs, it is claimed, the seizure of Durban will be impossible. TO INVADE CAPE COLONY. Dispatches this morning show that the forces of the Orange Free State are at dength preparing to invade Cape Colony. These forces are not overwhelming, but the Dutch in the neighborhood of Colesburg and Burghersdorp are exceptionally pro-Boer, and their support is evidently expected. The objective of this force of Boers will probably be Naauw Fort, one of the most important strategic railroad points in South Africa.

AT CAPE TOWN. In spite of the optimism of military men, there is a feeling of general anxiety at Cape Town. The Orange River is reported to be so swollen that drifts are impassable, and the Boers hold the wagon-bridge at Philippolis, which is the only means of crossing.

SPECULATIONS.

The dispatches from Ladysmith are regarded here as being more cheering, and as indicating that the Boers are not disposed to come to close quarters. On the other hand, some people assert, it is more probable that the Boers are recuperating prior to a fresh onslaught on Ladysmith. It is understood that the feeling of security at Ladysmith has been greatly increased since all the naval guns have been mounted there, in spite of the knowledge of the garrison of the Boers' strenuous efforts to cut the railroad south.

Advices from Cape Town show that the people there are beginning to realize the seriousness of the situation in Natal. The merchants are apprehensive of the Boers overrunning the entire country, and it is reported that many of them have instructed their representatives to leave Pietermaritzburg.

LATE SPORTING

After the Battle - Opinion of the Referee-Jefferies the Best Man.

New York, Nov. 4 .- In an interview today, Referee George Siler said: "Jefferies received the decision over Sharkey because I thought he had the better of the contest. Sharkey put up a great fight, but he was out-generaled by Jefferies. The champion fought a clean-cut battle. Jeffries outpointed throughout the fight, with the ex-ception of a few rounds. Sharkey at times was aggressive, and led often, but many of his blows went wild. Sharkey's blows, which may have appeared to land on Jeffries, went wide of the mark. The champion blocked Sharkey's leads repeatedly. Jeffries, altogether, fought a clever fight, and every blow landed by him was clean and effective. Sharkey, in his desire to win, resorted to questionable tacties. It was the greatest heavy-weight fight I have ever seen. Both men showed gameness, and their endurance

A New Bakery.

Dean & Co. have opened out a bakery at 547 Hamilton road. The firm is composed of A. and J. Dean, two young men well and favorably known in this city, brothers of R. and J. Dean, formerly connected with the Parnell-Dean Baking Company.

The premises of the firm are equipped with the latest improved machinery Their long experience, coupled the fact that they buy the best flour that can be obtained, enables them to produce bread which is not excelled by any in the city.

Although the firm has only been in business six weeks, they have two wagons and drivers, which are kept busy delivering their bread. They intend to place a third rig on the route shortly. They are the only firm in the city who are authorized to use the union stamp on their bread.

DORCHESTER.

Dorchester Station, Nov. 4.-The residence of Mr. Thomas Neely was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday, Nov. 1, when his daughter, Sarah E., was married to Mr. Thomas E. Kirkpatrick, accountant, of Detroit. The bride was charmingly costumed in a suit of cream cashmere, tulle veil with trimmings of white silk lace, silver jets, orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of cream roses and maidenhair ferns. Miss Knight, of Burgessville, attended the bride, and looked charming, attired similarly to the bride. She carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. D. Kirkpatrick, brother of the bridegroom, supported the groom. The drawing - room was beautifully decorated with smilax, and draped with white bunting. As the bride entered, leaning upon the arm of her ed father, the wedding march was played by Miss Johnston, of Dresden, and beneath a canopy decorated with carnations and ivy, the ceremony was performed by Rev. John Mahan, pasto of the Methodist Church of this place in the presence of 100 guests from Lon don, Dresden, Goderich, Thamesford Burgessville and Putnam. The exce lent dinner was presided over by Rev Mr. Mahan, and followed by toasts speeches and music. George Neeely reeve of North Dorchester, on behalf of the bride and bridegroom The presents to the bride evidenced he great popularity. The bridal pair left for Detroit, amid showers of rice and ancient shoes. Misses Galloway, Maud Smith and Mrs. Hunt were the vocal artists, while Miss Hodgins, of Putnam, acted as accompanist. Ten re-presentatives of the Kirkpatrick family out of fourteen living, were present at the wedding.

BIRR.

Birr, Nov. 4.-Mr. and Mrs. George Patrick arrived home last week from a two months' visit with relatives in Manitoba. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess are visiting friends in this vicinity. Miss Dewry, of Exeter, is the guest of Mrs. A. Kestle. Rev. Mr. Couzens preached to the Methodist congregation on Sunday on the million-dollar thanksgiving fund of the twentieth century.

No serious damage was done in this vicinity on Hallowe'en, although the boys appeared to be feeling rather frisky.

Mr. Joseph Hughes, sen., has sold his farm to Mr. Samuel Jones, of London.

A meeting of the trustees of the public school was held recently, at which it was decided to make some improvements in the heating of school, which will add much to the comfort of the pupils this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Kress, of Stratford, are visiting at Mrs. Bunn's.

FAGGED OUT .- None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to for. There, however, is a cure box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's

THE GENUINE FOOT ELM.

The original, guaranteed remedy that has cured so many of sweaty, tender, inflamed feet, is being imitated and substituted. Be sure and get the genuine Foot Elm. It does not contain alum and injurious ingredients, that dry up the feet and crack the leather. Foot Elm preserves the leather and makes the shoes whole some and sweet. For sale by C. McCallum & Co.
