A PLEASANT AFFAIR

Honor Their Fellow-Employe, Pte. Hessell.

Pte. Frank Hessell was pleasantly surprised last evening by a company of about 40 painters of the Grand Trunk car works, where he worked before he went out to South Africa. The party was headed by Mr. T. W. Hutchinson, foremen painter. They went from East London to the Hessell home on McAlpine avenue in a special car. A bugle band accompanied them.

Mr. Hutchinson called upon Pte. Hessell and read the following address: "We, the employes of the G. T. R. car works, with whom you were associated before your departure for the scene of war, desire to congratulate you on your safe return from South

"We also would assure you that your patriotism and love for Queen and country, which led you to join that noble band of heroes, the first Can-adian contingent, which has made such a glorious record, has won our highest esteem.

"We would ask your acceptance of the accompanying memento as a slight token of the high regard in which we held you. "With best wishes for the future welfare of you and yours. "Signed, on behalf of the employes, James Fitzgerald, E. Alteman, J. P. Sissons, W. Amor." Mr. Amor, who represented the other departments of the works, handed the young soldier a gold chain and charm. Pte. Hessell replied in suitable terms, and subsequently a very pleasant time was spent.

WONDROUS REMEDY

Is What a London Doctor Calls Dodd's Kidney Pills.

London, Oct. 1 .- A large decrease in the number of cases of Kidney Disease has been noted in this city during the "There's only one thing to be said about it," said a prominent physician, speaking on the subject today.

"This falling off is due solely to the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills by the people. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the household, which accounts for the great decrease of Kidney Complaints."

Lord Strathcona will formally open the Royal Victoria College for Women on his approaching visit to Montreal. BILIOUSNESS BURDENS LIFE .-

The bilious man is never a companionable man, because his aliment renders him morose and gloom. The complaint is not so dangerous as it is disagreeable. Yet no one need suffer from it who can procure Paymelee's Vegetable who can procure Parmelee's Vegetable

NEW BOUNDARY MARK. Chicago, Oct. 5.—A special to the Record from Tacoma, Wash., says: A new boundary marking has just been discovered in the disputed portion of the Mount Baker district by surveyors of a railroad. They found the monument in the vicinity of Chilawahack Lake, in the middle of a wide swath which was years ago cut through the timber. If the boundary follows the line of this wath, Red Mountain and all of the disputed strip is on the American side. It is expected the report of the Do-minion surveyors will be made in a few days, and the boundary dispute will then be on a basis different from a miners' squabble.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 5 .- Angus Richardson, an 11-year-old boy of No. 11 Niagara street, while climbing in a butternut tree to get at the nuts, fell AN ATTACK ON over twenty feet, breaking both wrists and sustaining serious internal in-juries. He died at the Sick Children's WOMAN BEHEADED. Toronto, Ont., Oct. 5 .- Mrs. Jane Brotherson, a widow, 65 years of age, met with a horrible death in the C. P. R. yard at Toronto Junction yesterday afternoon. She attempted to cross the tracks underneath some freight cars, while making a short cut through the yard. She had passed several tracks safely, but did not observe that on one a train was being shunted. It moved off as she was passing under a car, and the wheels went over her, cutting the head clean off. DROWNED.

Sydney, C. B., Oct. 5.—The steamer Netherholm, England, for St. John, N. B., put in here this morning for coal. She had on board the crew of the Newfoundland fishing schooner Henry M. Martin, which she struck one mile northwest of Cape Pine Light at 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Frank Martin, the captain's brother, and Wm. Riggs, a seaman, were drowned.

BALLOONIST'S PERIL. Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 5 .- In the presence of 5,000 people Prof. R. F. Burke, of Blissfield, Mich, was loaded into the cannon attached to the balloon, and at the height of 3,000 feet was to be fired to the trapeeze of the parachute hanging from the side of the balloon. When he had gone 2,000 feet balloon, parachute and all began a rapid descent, and Burke climbed from the mouth of the cannon onto the top of the gun. Once he slipped, and only hung by one hand, but finally, with his balloon, he came down on a tree several miles away, and was imprisoned therein for an hour and a half.

BURNED TO DEATH. Detroit, Oct. 5 .- Mrs. Mary Almas, of No. 8 Leverett street, was fatally burned here Wednesday afternoon. A puff of flame from a gasoline stove is supposed to have set fire to her clothing. Deceased was aged 41 years, and was the daughter of Mr. John Hendricks, of Adelaide street, Strathroy. Three children, aged 13, 12 and 10 years, together with her husband, Chas. A. Almas, survive.

MARK HANNA

Ten-Pound Chunk of Ice Aimed at the Senator's Head-The Trust in a New Role. Chicago, Oct. 5 .- Senator Marcus A. Hanna, was the target for a ten-pound chunk of ice last night at the Thirty-first street Republican meeting. The missile was dropped through an aperture in the tent directly over the speakers' stand. It did not miss Senator Hanna's head over two or three inches, and had it struck him, would have knocked him down and probably fractured his skull. The police, who surrounded the speakers' stand, were astounded for a moment, and then made a rush for the street. Senator Hanna retained his composure, remarking to those about him that the ice trust was in evidence in a new The police found the place where the ice had been placed on the sidewalk, but could get no trace of the person who had thrown it. Senator Hanna. left the tent escorted and protected by a double row of police. As he was rolled away in his carriage, there were cries of "How would you like to be the ice man, Mark?" RAP AT ROOSEVELT. New York, Oct. 5.-Mayor Jas. K. McGuire, of Syracuse, spoke to the United Colored Democracy of this city. He said in part: "Long after the green grass has grown over our graves you will find that in the history of the Spanish war the most heroic regiment was not Roosevelt's rough riders, but the negre regiment. "An episode, or rather an incident, was flaunted in the press a few days ago, when you were startled by the announced that this great reformer, Roosevelt, had been mobbed, and that the riot was a sample of what the country would endure if Bryan were elected. It was sent all along the line to confuse the conservative element." Mayor McGuire then told his audience that the trouble was inspired by Senator Wolcott, and that he had affidavits to this effect, which he would read next Saturday night at Syracuse city
