KINGSTON LIBERALS.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 5.—Last night the Liberals of this city met in convention, and unanimously nominated B. M. Britton, M.P., Q.C., as their candidate for the Dominion House in the coming elections.

TORONTO CONSERVATIVES. Conservative nominating conventions will be held in West Teronto on Monday, Oct. 15; Center Toronto, on Tuesday, 16th, and East Toronto, on the 17th. E. F. Clarke, M.P., and E. B. Osler, M.P., will be renominated in the West. W. R. Brock, wholesale drygoods merchant, is being pressed to, run in the Center. President Kemp, of the board of trade, can have a nomination in East Toronto if he wants it. John Ross Robertson, the sitting member, is definitely out of politics.

PEOPLE KNOW A GOOD THING. Hon. William Mulock, postmaster-general in Sir Wilfrld Laurier's cabinet, was in Windsor for a few hours on his way from Kingsville, and was interviewed by the Detroit News correspondent.

Binghamton, N. Y., Oct. 5.-In the presence of 5,000 people Prof. R. F. Burke, of Blissfield, Mich, was loaded into the cannon attached to the balloon, and at the height of 3,000 feet was to be fired to the trapeeze of the parachute hanging from the side of the balloon. When he had gone 2,000 feet balloon, parachute and all began a rapid descent, and Burke climbed from the mouth of the cannon onto the top of the gun. Once he slipped, and only hung by one hand, but finally, with his balloon, he came down on a tree several miles away, and was imprisoned therein for an hour and a half.

BURNED TO DEATH. Detroit, Oct. 5 .- Mrs. Mary Almas. of 8 Leverett street, was fatally burned here Wednesday afternoon. A puff of flame from a gasoline stove is supposed to have set fire to her clothing. Deceased was aged 41 years, and was the daughter of Mr. John Hendricks, of Adelaide street, Strathroy. AN ATTACK ON MARK HANNA

Ten-Pound Chunk of Ice Aimed at the Senator's Head-The Trust in a New Role.

Chicago, Oct. 5 .- Senator Marcus A. Hanna, was the target for a tenpound chunk of ice last night at the Thirty-first street Republican meeting. The missile was dropped through an aperture in the tent directly over the speakers' stand. It did not miss Senator Hanna's head over two or three inches, and had it struck him, would have knocked him down and probably fractured his skull. The police, who surrounded the speakers' stand, were astounded for a moment, and then made a rush for the street. Senator Hanna retained his composure, remarking to those about him that the

The police found the place where the ice had been placed on the sidewalk, but could get no trace of the person who had thrown it. Senator Hanna left the tent escorted and protected by a double row of police. As he was rolled away in his carriage, there were cries of "How would you like to be the ice man, Mark?"

RAP AT ROOSEVELT. New York, Oct. 5.-Mayor Jas. K. McGuire, of Syracuse, spoke to the United Colored Democracy of this city.

He said in part:
"Long after the green grass has grown over our graves you will find that in the history of the Spanish war the most heroic regiment was not Roosevelt's rough riders, but the negro regiment.

"An episode, or rather an incident. was flaunted in the press a few days ago, when you were startled by the announced that this great reformer, Roosevelt, had been mobbed, and that the riot was a sample of what the country would endure if Bryan were elected. It was sent all along the line to confuse the conservative element." Mayor McGuire then told his audience that the trouble was inspired by Senator Wolcott, and that he had affidavits to this effect, which he would read next Saturday night at Syracuse city

New York, Oct. 5.—George Salando died in Bellevue Hospital today. He came here from France many years ago as baritone of an opera company, and scored a hit here and in other cities. The company failed, and Salando's subsequent professional career was one of disappointment. Of late years he and his niece have been street singers. Their songs were operatic selections and attracted large crowds.

One night their collection was $200. The niece died from pneumonia caused by exposure. Salando sang alone after her death until ill-health prevented, and when he went to the hospital last Tuesday he was emaciated for want
