HOT CHASE OVER THE HOOSIER STATE.

Woman Kidnaps Her Son—Ex-United States Senator's Family Have a Sensation.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 27.—A sensational kidnapping involving the family of ex-United States Senator W. H. Miller, occurred yesterday afternoon, and led to a hot chase a few minutes later across the state to overtake the wife of Sam D. Miller, son of W. H. Miller, who was supposed to be trying to New York with her stolen son.

Samuel D. Miller and wife have lived in New York for several years, and last summer he came west to go into his father's office. His wife stayed in New York. Last Friday she came here to demand possession of her 7-year-old son, whom the father had brought west with him, and who was living with him at the grandfather's house, W. H. Miller, in North Delaware street. The husband and wife had a consultation at the wife's apartment in the Denison, and she agreed that if the boy was allowed to be sent to her daily with the nurse she would not attempt to kidnap him.

Yesterday afternoon the boy and nurse called on Mrs. Miller at the Denison. She sent the nurse out to get a check cashed, and while the governess was gone, ordered a carriage and made arrangements to leave. When the governess returned Mrs. Miller announced that they were going for a drive. They started in a closed carriage toward the depot. The German governess, suspecting foul play, jumped out of the carriage while it was going, ran to a telephone and notified the father and grandfather. Mrs. Miller immediately ordered the carriage driven to Brightwood, and when the two Millers arrived at the Union Station there was no trace of the woman and boy. Two hours later they received information which led them to believe that Mrs. Miller intended to take the Big Four accommodation at Brightwood and take the Knickerbocker train at Anderson or Muncie.

At 6:20 o'clock the two Millers started on the Knickerbocker to overtake Mrs. Miller before she got out of the state. Mrs. Miller was Miss Helen K. Archer, of Pottstown, Pa. Samuel

DEATH DEFIED BY A MICHIGAN MAN

Who Carries a Lead Bullet in His Heart—How the Intruder Got There.

Cadillac, Mich., Dec. 27.—Charles B. Nelson, of this city, is probably the only living man with a bullet in his heart. He submitted to an examination by X-ray in Chicago yesterday, and the fact was conclusively proven. Until the fluoroscope the ball in Nelson's heart could be plainly seen rising and falling with each pulsation of the vital organ. The bullet has been there since the night of July 1, 1896.

The mysterious circumstances surrounding the shooting of Nelson made it one of the sensational episodes in the history of Chicago. On the night of the shooting Mr. Nelson was in company with Miss Margaret Staples, in Washington Park. There was a moon, but at about 11 p.m. high clouds arose and partly obscured its light. According to the stories of Miss Staples and Nelson, the face of a negro suddenly was thrust out from behind a bush. His appearance was that of a lunatic. He waved his arms, rolled his eyes and uttered a few unintelligible words. Then he raised his arm and fired. Nelson fell back on the grass with a bullet in his heart. The bullet's scream brought the police, but the negro had fled.

The physicians who attended Nelson at the hospital told their patient that he had no more than a 1 chance in 1,000 for his life. The bullet had passed through the breast and then through the pericardium of the heart, where it had lodged in the muscles. "It must lie there," said the surgeons. "To probe for the ball would mean a quicker, though perhaps no surer, death than is to be yours."

But Nelson, who had a fine physique, would not give up. He declared that he would take that "1 chance in 1,000" would live in spite of the doctors' prophecies, and perhaps be present at their funerals. For a week the patient fought for his life. At times he seemed to have no chance, but as often he rallied, and the admiring physicians encouraged him in his battle against odds. Finally they admitted that he might live "for awhile," but even when he was able to rise from his hospital cot they would not concede him a long lease of life. In spite of their assertions Nelson has lived nearly five years, and is in a fair way to complete the natural span of life's existence.

TWO SKATERS DROWNED.

Norwalk, Conn., Dec. 27.—John Kelly, aged 13, while skating on the Union Mills pond at Norwalk, broke through the ice and was drowned, and him, also perished. Other boys tried to rescue the drowning lads, but in vain.

SHOT HIS FACE OFF.

Vandalia, Mich., Dec. 27.—George Copley, a 14-year-old lad, residing in this village, went out Christmas morning to shoot muskrats with an old shotgun. At first shot, the gun hung fire, and the lad placed the gun on the ground in a position to reload. As he brought the weapon in range with his face it went off, shooting off part of his face and putting out one eye. He will probably live, but will be badly disfigured.

STEAMER FOUNDERED OFF CORK.

Twelve Persons Drowned Out of Seventeen on Board.

The Czar's Health Completely Restored—Clerical Swindle in Paris.

TWELVE DROWNED

Queenstown, Dec. 27.—The Japanese Government dredger Sente foundered last evening off Cork harbor, 12 persons out of 17 on board being drowned.

THE CZAR IS WELL.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 27.—The Russian minister of the interior, M. Sipiagin, who arrived here today from Livadia, where Emperor Nicholas is convalescing, asserts that the czar is now completely restored.

DEATHS FROM BUBONIC PLAGUE.

Calcutta, Dec. 27.—Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the viceroy of India, in the course of a speech today, said that since the appearance of the bubonic plague in 1898, 25,000 deaths from the disease have occurred in the Mysore State.

REACHED A CASH BASIS.

London, Dec. 27.—The China question has virtually reached the money point. The amount of the indemnity to be paid will probably require many weeks of diplomatic consultation. Sir Robert Hart knows better than anybody else what can be paid by the Chinese Government without the complete surrender of her taxing and revenue resources to Europe, but bankers in all the capitals prefer to have a great loan underwritten by the powers themselves, and full financial control established by an international commission for the payments of interest and sinking fund service.

THE SULTAN'S ORDER.

Details are not obtainable of the placing of and order by the Sultan of Turkey with the Cramps for a warship, but it is understood that the item to that effect from Constantino is correct. From the character and size of the ship ordered it is believed that the contract will involve the payment by the Turkish Government to the Cramps of about $2,500,000, which should afford an ample margin for the settlement of any proper claims against the Turkish Government.

IMPOSED ON PRIESTS.

Paris, Dec. 27.—The appeal court has confirmed the sentence of five years' imprisonment imposed on an ingenious swindler named Goffray, who posed in clerical clothes here in April last as the "Cardinal-Bishop of Washington," soliciting funds to convert the young Indians of New Mexico. Several times Goffray succeeded in celebrating mass, and on one occasion he appeared at the point of celebrating mass at Strasbourg. Finally he appeared at Montclair, in the Department of Dromes, where he lectured to the Trappist Monks on his adventures in the Rocky Mountains, where, he said, he had been scalped by the Indians while preaching the Gospel to them. The fraud was discovered by Goffray pretending that the Indians of the Rocky Mountains were suffering from the plague.

THE PINO CENSUS.

London, Dec. 27.—It is said that the proposition to have a census taken of the Philippines is off, and the reason given is that each census enumerator sent out would have to be accompanied by a battalion of infantry. If the United States Government should undertake to obtain the population of the islands now by the usual census methods, the task would occupy the attention of one hundred thousand troops, and then probably be far from accurate. Many men declare that they have already as much as they can do chasing hostile Filipinos, and could not spare time to act as census enumerators.

CABLE NOTES

Jules Rivera, the famous musical conductor, is dead in London. Three hundred students have been arrested in St. Petersburg for propagating Socialist doctrine.

The president of Liberia, W. D. Coleman, resigned Dec. 11 owing to the death of his wife, Mrs. Coleman. G. W. Gibson, the secretary of state, was elected president by the legislature.

It is announced that Lord William Leslie de la Poer Beresford, who has been suffering from peritonitis, but whose condition on Christmas Day was somewhat improved, has had a rather serious relapse.

It is stated that nothing is known in Paris to justify the report, circulated in the United States, that Ignace Paderewski, the pianist, has been killed in a duel in France.

Evelyn B. Baldwin, the Arctic explorer, who is arranging in London for the Beagle-Ziegler expedition, purchased the Esquimaux—the largest and staunchest of the whaling fleet—fitted her with modern appliances, and named her the America. The rival bidder was the British Antarctic expedition, which organizers desired to secure the Esquimaux as a substitute ship.

FIGHT AGAINST DIPLOMA LAWYERS

Philadelphia Examining Board Resigns—Judges Will Not Heed Their Requests.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 27.—Every member of the examining board of the Philadelphia Bar has resigned as a result of disagreement with the board of judges over the qualifications of applicants for admission to the bar. While judges and examiners are very reticent as to the points at issue, it is said the judges refuse to accede to these requests of the examiners: "That the standard of education be raised so as to prevent men who are ill equipped with the tests of the representative body of the bar itself."

The members of the board who resigned are former Supreme Court Judge Samuel G. Thompson, chairman; William B. Staake, Colonel Shelton Potter, Joseph E. Townsend, Chase, Carver, Charles Biddle, Joseph Miller, Edward P. Allison and Lucien H. Alexander, secretary.

One prominent lawyer said today: "Not long ago I entered the court room and found it nearly filled with young men who were about to be admitted to the bar. They all came from the university and were duly admitted to the bar without the bar having the right to utter a word officially as to their qualifications.

"There is an esprit de corps in the bar of this city that makes this reputation established by a precedent which might in time become dangerous. These young men should pass some kind of examination under a body representative of the bar before they are allowed to practice."

PAT CROWE

Is an Object of Interest in Connection With the Cudahy Abduction.

Omaha, Dec. 27.—It is now known that Pat Crowe was seen in South Omaha the twenty hours before the abduction of Eddie Cudahy. On Monday night, Dec. 17, a well-known citizen of South Omaha, conversed with him for nearly an hour. Just before they parted Crowe was questioned concerning his future plans, and laughingly replied: "Oh, I have something big on; you'll hear from me soon." At that time this was viewed as an idle boast. It is stated that until shortly before the Cudahy abduction Crowe was engaged in the dairy business with his brother-in-law at Albright, just below South Omaha. Mrs. Crowe has admitted to a reporter that her husband was in South Omaha on the Saturday previous to the abduction. Diligent search is now being made around Albright for a buggy answering the description of the vehicle used by the abductors.

Anti-Ritualist Crusader Interrupts Ordination Services—Congregation Cries "Shame!"

London, Dec. 27.—Much excitement was caused at the ordination of 25 priests at St. Paul's Cathedral Sunday morning by J. W. Kensit, the anti-ritualist crusader, who protested against two of the candidates for ordination. The bishop of London, who was officiating for Bishop Creighton, who is still in the city, refused to allow the candidates. Bishop Barry replied: "You have shown nothing against the personal character of the candidates, and I shall ordain them."

The bishop's answer was received with shouts of "shame" by some of the congregation, which included many sympathizers with Mr. Kensit. The latter tried to speak further, when four vergers advanced and were about to push him from the church. One of them took hold of his coat, when a number of the congregation shouted loudly "Hands off." The vergers stood hesitating as to what they should do. Mr. Kensit thereupon withdrew with a score of his followers. The congregation, who were standing excitedly watching the proceedings, quieted down after the withdrawal of Mr. Kensit and the service proceeded.

THE PROVINCIAL REVENUE.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 27.—For the eleven months of 1900 to Nov. 30 the provincial revenue was $3,700,000 and the expenditure $3,600,000. The following are the principal items of receipts for the eleven months ended with Nov. 30: Salaries, $1,198,327; interest, $250,000; social deposit, $16,167; crown lands, $1,129,117; licenses, $290,940; education, $44,233; fisheries, $53,800; succession duties, $216,400; provincial secretary's department, $70,000; provincial revenue, $231,000.

It takes two to make an agreement—and a lawyer to get the best of it.

TOO NERVOUS TO SLEEP

Many Pale, Weak Men and Women Find Themselves Daily Growing Weaker and Fast Approaching Nervous Collapse and Prostration—Their Only Hope Is in the Use of

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

In sleep and rest alone can nature repair the daily waste of the body and supply the energies required for the duties of the day following. If the nerves are weak and exhausted, and you wake, longing for morning to come, you know that you will arise tired and worn out, and one day more to nervous collapse, nervous prostration or paralysis.

Sleeplessness, irritability, headache, neuralgia, loss of energy and emotion, confusion of the mental powers, and feelings of lassitude and despondency are among the indications of an exhausted nervous system.

The first thought is to take some opiate to induce sleep, a grave error, indeed, against which many nervous and physical wrecks could warn you. There is no rest, no restoration, no sleep, or rather unconsciousness, produced by opiates, and the deadening effect on the nerves merely hastens paralysis or prostration.

The most natural and most thorough nerve restorative obtainable is that which is known as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills). It gets right down to the foundation of disease, and by forming new, red corpuscles in the blood, and rekindling the vitality of the wasted nerve cells, gradually and perfectly restores new life and vigor to the weak and run-down system.

There is no guesswork, no experimenting and no faith required when you use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills). It is composed of the elements of nature, which go to form new nerve tissue, and can no more fail than can the laws of nature.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) is no miracle worker. Though many cures brought about by its use were truly marvellous, it was after the treatment was used regularly and persistently for many weeks or months, as the case required. You can be absolutely assured of a restored and revitalized nervous system if you use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food (pills) according to directions. The phenomenal growth in the sales of this great restorative are the strongest evidence of its wonderful merit. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent by mail, or by express, prepaid. Dr. Chase, Toronto. Imitators do no dare reproduce the portrait and signature of Dr. Chase, which are on every box of the genuine.
