CRUSHED BY WINDMILL. Hesperia, Mich., Dec. 15.-The family operations had been performed. of Charles Anderson, near this place, was shocked Friday night at dark to discover the body of Rollin Thorpe, their hired boy, hanging in the farm windmill. He had been missed at noon, but no one thought of opening up the windmill to look for him. He had gone onto the tower, and standing on the narrow platform 30 feet from the ground, was evidently oiling the mill. A fresh breeze had been blowing all day, and a sudden gust had turned the treacherous wheel and vane and an iron bar had caught him across the chest and throat, pinning him closely to the main frame

A protruding bolt cut his throat, though not fatally. He had died either from exhaustion or asphyxiation. The clothing had caught in the gearing, wound up, and the mill was stopped by this clogging and the resistance of his body under the horr ble

The Story of Morning Tiredness is told by impure blood, poor digestion, sluggish liver and tired nerves. It is a warning of very serious trouble ahead, and should prompt sensible people to take a bracing tonic like Ferrozone, an energetic invigorant and rebuilder. Ferrozone will give you a sharp appetite, promote good digestion and sound sleep; it will feed and energize the enfeebled organs, strengthen the nerve and vital forces and regulate the heart. Ferrozone changes that tired feeling into vigor, strength and ambition, and does it quickly. Remember the name, and insist on having only Ferrozone; it's the best tonic made. LEANDER AND KREBS TEAM WIN THE SIX-DAY AGONY

The Day at New Orleans and Ingleside

THE WHEEL.

END OF THE SIX-DAY AGONY. New York, Dec. 13.—Leander won the six-day race at Madison Square Garden tonight for his team in the final sprint with Jacobson, by half a wheel's length. McFarland took third position easily, with Bedell fourth and Moran fifth, for their teams.

At 9:30 o'clock Franz Krebs gained a lap for his team. There were no further changes, and at 10 o'clock the teams left the track. At eight minutes past ten Leander and Jacobson came out for the final sprint of a mile for first place. They rode around for a few laps, and were then sent away to a rolling start with Jacobsen in the Leander trailed until the last three laps when he jumped Jacobson and, despite all the efforts of the latter, held his advantage to the end, winning by half a length. The time was two minutes 52 1-5 seconds.

McFarland, Bedell and Moran were then sent away from a standing start to battle for third honors. The race was a runaway for McFarland, who won by ten lengths from Bedell in two minutes, 41 4-5 seconds. Moran was a ength behind Bedell,

Root and Keegan also started from 2,733 miles, 4 laps, made by Miller and Waller in 1899. The standing of the tams at the finish:

Leander's father is a prosperous lithographer in Chicago and George has been at odds with him because of his bicycle racing. He does not propose to give it up, but will go from here to Atlanta. The first team won $1,500, the second money, $1,000, going to Jacobson and

THE RING.

YOUNG CORBETT-McGOVERN.

New York, Dec. 13.-The agreement drawn up between Young Corbett and Terry McGovern calls for a battle in Detroit for 62½ per cent of the gross receipts of the house. This will be divided, 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser. The contest can be for only ten rounds, under the laws of Michigan. John R. Considine, the financial backer of Young Corbett, and Manager Harris agreed each to post St.,000 with the sporting editor of the Cincinnati Inquirer, E. C. Lambertson, for appearance in the ring. On behalf of the Metropolitan A. C., Billy Considine, of Defroit, will also post $5,000 with Mr. Lambertson, guaranteeing the ability of his organization to bring of ability of his organization to bring off the fighters, to be divided equally, should the club fail to make good. Instructions were wired on Friday to the house management to get out the champion's sweaters and togs, that he might begin work as soon as he reaches the Queen City. McGovern may go to West Baden as a starter, to take a course of baths before beginning hard training. It is expected that he, too, will do his work preparing for Louisville. Harris Cecided on Cincinnati when articles were same city, a night's ride from De-

FIGHT TALK IN CHICAGO. Chicago, Dec. 13. — The offer of a Philadelphia club to hang up a purse of $3,000 for a fight between Fitzsim-mons and Ruhlin, has stirred local promoters to action, and it is proposed to bring these two fighters together in Tattersalls, guaranteeing them a purse of $7,000, or 50 per cent of the gross receipts. Tattersalls will seat 8,000 spec tators, and it is figured this fight would bring in $20,000. McGovern and Broad fought there to an $18,000 house. Fitzsimmons is the only heavyweight whom Mayor Harrison will permit to fight in Chicago. He has declared himself on this proposition. He says Fitzsimmons is the only heavy-weight fighter now before the public who is on the square, and he is also friendly to Ruhlin, so it is thought there will be no trouble in pulling the fight off
