ON SALVATION

Rev. Mr. Gilpin's Point of View -Complains of "Artificial Religion."

here is a short statement with which are each Sunday introduced. Rev. Mr. Gilpin's "foreword" yesterday was as follows: "We meet together as persons who face a commo destiny and share common delights. Our habitation is in a glorious world, where joy pulsates day by day. We remember today that a great power, not ourselves, brought us into this sphere of gladness. He sustains us day by day. His might upholds us. His joy cheers us. His purpose reconstructs us. We worship our Creator in sincerity and truth-we love him in deepening fellowship and join our fortunes to his. We join in this sersice in the name of the brotherhood of man, in the name of truth and in the name of God." The sermon was the second of series on "The Saving of Man." Reviewing shortly the former sermon, bank, listening to the birds trilling Mr. Gilpin said, that one of the causes their spring songs overhead and feelof the degradation from which so ing the free air of heaven fanning his many need to be rescued is found in childish cheek, was a lazy, good-forthat teaching which dins into the ears nothing fellow. I was taught that the of young and old one hundred times a boy dangling his limp legs from the year, that they are by nature wholly hard form in the school stall, and bad—totally deprayed, that is the having his young intellect warped and word-and can neither do, nor think, deformed by pinching and pruning and nor wish, any good; that even their sturted by mental food unfit for his feeble attempts at being good are an age, was the ideal-even of the Creoffense to God. The result of this ator. And after all these years I wake sort of teaching, reiterated year after up to find that Tommy, not the other, year, is psychologically inevitable to was God's pet child. I plead for a rethe average boy or girl, man or wo-ligion which bids us look out on the man; unless saved by a miracle of his own common sense, he is apt to become what he is so persistently de- a religion whose windows are open clared to be-wicked, and the next not towards evil and gloom, but toroblem confronting the church is wards sweetness and purity, towards that of rescuing him. In many cases truth and light and God. it succeeds; in many the people are est to the church forever. Society Folk Start Innovation for Their Daughter. Elmira, N. Y., May 5. - An innovaion in social entertainments has been introduced here by Congressman and Mrs. J. Sloat Fassett, a "stork party," for their daughter, Mrs. Frederick Gray Hodgson, of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Hodgson came here a week ago for a visit with her parents at Strathmont, and there was a lively round of social events in her honor. Then, as a sendoff for their daughter, bride of one year, the Fassetts invited all her chums of former days to their home for a stork party. None of the guests, all of whom were women, had ever before heard of a DR. M. A. The table was handgraduate. Porcelain. Masonic Temple, somely decorated, the most striking and the chief of the decorations being a huge stork. It stood in the center of the table, and the 'eak was graceful'y pointed in the direction of Mrs. Hodgson's place. The place cards were decorated with pictures of storks and other things which the story books tell of as accompanying the joy-giving birds on their pilgrimages about the country. The climax came when the loving cup was sent on its round. When the first to taste of its contents discovered that as the cup journeyed along, so that every diner in touching it to her lips had the same surprise.

SACHAROFF'S BAD DIVORCE General's Divorced Wife, Falling to Get Justice, Appeals to Czar.

Berlin, May 6.-A story of a startling Russian society scandal is told in the Schlesione Zeitung, a conservative newspaper published at Breslau, in close touch with aristocratic circles in St. Petersburg. Gen. Sacharoff, com-mander of the Sixteenth Division of the Russian army, and until recently chief of staff to Kuropatkin, married twenty-five years, made 'the acquaintance of Mlle, Woronoff, a woman well known among the jeunesse doree of St. Peters. burg, fell desperately in love with her and ordered his wife to divorce him in order that he might marry his new choice. Mme. Sacharoff refused on account of their children, whereupon the general charged his wife with infidelity and demanded a divorce. The court accepted 'the allegation, found Mme. Sacharoff guilty, granted the divorce and ordered her to do the penance required by the church for seven years. The Governor-General of Poland M. Teherkoff, hearing of the affair, secured the transfer of Gen. Sacharoff to the seat of war, whither Mlle. Woron-off followed him. Mme. Sacharoff appealed to the Holy Synod, which only confirmed the judgment of the civil court, though there was no evidence whatever to support it beyond the husband's allegation.

Then came an order to confine Mme. Sacharoff in a lunatic asylum, and the general took steps to obtain the church's blessing on his new marriage. His friend, Kuropatkin, used his influence with the Metropolitan, who empowered an army chaplain to perform the marriage ceremony. Mme. Sacharoff has now appealed to the Czar. But it is highly doubtful if her petition will ever reach him.
