Awnings on Windows Will Keep Your House Cool and Comfortable

Besides keeping the rooms cool where the windows are exposed to the sun, awnings will protect your curtains and carpets from the heat, which is more injurious than a season's wear. FOR THE VERANDAH OR PORCH, too, a draw curtain will enable you to live outdoors and enjoy the fresh air while you may. These, as well as adding to your comfort during the summer season, also add to the appearance of your home.
