SUGAR.

LONDON, March 7.—Sugar—Cane clos-town in the following and supp 32c to 42c.

There was only a very small market his morning, despite expectations to the contrary. A number of the farmers have taken to the whoels again, and it is perilous going in many places.

The feature of this amorning's market as the first maple syrup of the season, which was offered by Mr. John McNaughton, of Ilderton. The price was it 25 a gallon. The syrup is a week or more later than usual this year, due to the fact that tapping operations were not commenced till about the first of March, while in former years they began about the role of February.

Butter and Eggs.

Butter and Eggs were very scarce, butter being especially in great demand, with very little offered. Eggs were somewhat more plentiful, but even with them there was a decid-div small market, the majority selling about 25c and 28c a dozen. Butter remained at 25c for crocks and 25c for rolls. Poultry also is very scarce, practically the only thing offered being a few chickens, and they are selling at the high price of 16c per fb.

Vegetables None Too Plentiful.

Vegetables were not greatly in evidence, but what fresh evertables and fruits of the first of particular to the price of the per fb.
