"The Naked Truth."

Mr. J. R. Minhinnick, manager the Grand Opera House, received a elegram from the manager of "The Naked Truth," which will be the at traction at the Grand on Friday night. that in Montreal the show proved the greatest success of recent years. Mr. Henry E. Dixey was after the per-formance, the guest of honor at a banquet, at which there were over 500 guests, mostly representatives of the Montreal press. It was originally intended that this attraction should appear here on Saturday night, but as all the one-night stands are being cancelled by the company that they may get into Chicago, the manager was finally persuaded to have his show here on Friday night.

The Glasgow Select Choir. The musical public of London has undoubtedly a rare treat in store for them at the Grand Opera House on The first Thursday evening next. trans-Atlantic tour of this celebrated company of singers is proving a phe nomenal success. They are visiting only the large centres, and have on every appearance been greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences. They have excelled the most sanguine expectations. The press is unanimous in its praise of their singing. The Toronto and Winnipeg papers declare that the entertainments given in these cities has not been equalled in years The officers of St. Andrew's Society say that while the advance sale is most gratifying, that there are still a number of good seats available.

Henry E. Dixey on Friday. One of the foremost comedians on the English-speaking stage, Henry E. Dixey, will appear at the Grand Opera House, Friday night, Oct. 21, instead of Saturday as announced, in the 3-act laughter play, "The Naked Truth," at present the reigning success of the London stage.

"The Naked Truth" is a 3-act farcial comedy that for the past seven months has been breaking all previous records at Wyndham's Theatre, and Miss Dorothy Davies, Miss Lillian the Prince of Wales' Theatre in Lon- Dix, Miss Blanche Bryant, Miss Marie don, where Charles Hawtrey is ap- Pert, and the Messrs. Herbert Standpearing in the role to be played here by Mr. Dixey.

It is declared to be a clean, wholesome comedy, and entirely up to the ing. Guaranteed attraction. standard of merit obtained in all of r. Brady's productions.

For the interpretation of the comedy RELEASED MONDAY Mr. Brady's productions. Mr. Brady has surrounded Mr. Dixey with one of the largest and most representative organizations assembled New York in many seasons. In several respects it might be designated as an "all-star" cast, there being a Toronto Doctor Finds Himsell as an "all-star" cast, there being a number of former stars prominent in Once More a Prisoner. [G. N. W.] Toronto, Oct. 18.—Dr. Herbert Shep-pard, the old man who was acquitted yesterday on a charge of bigamy, was arrested again today on a similar charge. Yesterday the physician produced papers to show that Sheppard had obtained a divorce from his first wife, whom he married in Barrie in 1869.

The charge was brought by Mrs. Lucy Moore whom he married in Toronto.

Moore, whom he married in Toronto. During his testimony, however, the phy-sician stated that in 1891 when he was living in Eden Mills, he married another This wife, he said, lived with him until he lost all his property, then left, and he could find no trace of her. This was his second wife, and it was because

Dr. Sheppard was remanded for a week in the police court this morning. WANTS TO JAIL
