TYLES From FASHION'S SOURCE

The styles we show always come direct, at first hand from creators of style---not at second hand from imitators. This is why you may know that our modes are never behind time, but up-to-the-minute.

We also keep our stock new by marking a fair price on our merchandise when we first show it. This makes our goods sell fast and enables us to always have "on-time" fresh styles from fashion's source.
