Both papers and people were so as unded at the outcome of the confernce that they feel that there is omething in the agreement arrived at which has not been published, and that if this is not the case then the new Anglo-Japanese treaty has affected the result in some way.

"Impregnable Supremacy." In this connection the Pall Mall Gazette says: "The enlarged treaty with England may have had considerable weight in persuading the Mikado and is advisors that Japan's position in he Far East is now practically imregnable and that peace may be ade without pressing for the paynent of costs." The paper adds: Japan now stands in a position of mpregnable supremacy in the Far ast, and this supremacy could only disputed by a coalition against hich her alliance with the greatest aval power in the world constitutes absolute guarantee."

Arguing that Japan might, after con deration, feel more satisfied with havgained the points for which she ok up arms, the Pall Mall Gazette ntinues: "Henceforth Asia lies at r feet and particularly China. China s been a bone of contention all ng. England and the United

RUSSIANS SATISFIED

Views of High Russian Authority on What the Conference Accomplished

Portsmouth, N. H., August 30 .-Mr. De Martens and Mr. Dennison at the navy yard to begin the work of drafting the treaty.

Mr. De Martens is receiving valuable assistance from Mr. Pokotiloff, who on account of his thorough familiarity with the whole Far Eastern situation. and especially the leases of Port Arthur and the Liao Tung Peninsula and all matters affecting the Chinese Eastern Railroad, is particularly qualified to render aid. When the signatures are attached the exchange of ratifications by the Emperors of Russia and Japan alone will remain. Emperor Nicholas in the credentials given M. Witte formally pledged his word to approve any treaty his plenipotentiaries would sign. While the credentials of Baron Komura, under regular Japanese procedure, reserved to the Mikado th right to sanction the treaty, that regarded as a mere formality. The Kussians continue to regard the greement reached yesterday as wonderful diplomatic victory.

The highest Russian authority. speaking of what would have happened if peace had not been made, said: "I consider the military situation from he Russian standpoint in the mos favorable light. Russian arms would have been success possibly to Hai Cheng. But with the never venture into the Liao Tung peninsula. We could not have recrossed the Yalu into Corea. We could tically we obtain in this treaty wha we would have had to buy with victories. Had defeat come, who knows what else we should in the end have been obliged to yield.
