HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS

WATFORD, DEC. 21, 1906.

OUR LINES ARE CAST IN PLEASANT PLACES

When we contrast our condition with that of other countries we should be thankful that we are alive and live in good old Ontario. In the old land the country is divided into two hostile camps over the educational question, and the unemployed are clamoring for work or bread. France is rent with dissension between church and state. Socialism and unrest is gnawing at the heart strings of Germany, and the Kaiser knows not what moment his imperial head will fall in the basket. Riot and murder prevail in Russia, and the Czar is practically a prisoner in his own castle to avoid the bomb of an assassin. Austria is awaiting the death of its aged Emperor before inaugurating a civil war. Japan is loaded down with a war debt that is grinding the life out of the people. Norway and Sweden are at dagger points over the recent dissolution. Our American neighbors are menaced with a war with Japan, and have their own troubles with Cuba and the Philippines.

Here we have nothing of this nature to contend with. There is the never ending struggle between the ins and the outs, but people do not take politics as seriously as they did a decade ago, and things run along about the same whether Grits or Tories are at the throttle of the big engine that runs the country.

Taking a retrospective view, at this seasonable time of the year, we are entitled to shake hands with ourselves, and pat each other on the back. Things are coming our way, and coming good and strong. Let us not develop a swelled head, but proceed along the old established lines that make for prosperity, progress and honor, and all will be well with us, and every revolution of the hands on the dial of time will mark a step forward in national rectitude, independence and contentment.

We join in wishing all our neighbors as happy a new year as has fallen to the lot of the people of Canada A. D. 1906.

PARKER-DORMER.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, Dec. 19th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dormer, 2nd line, S. E. R., Warwick, when their daughter, Lizzie, was united in marriage to Mr. John Trueman Parker. Promptly at 6 o'clock the bride entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, while Miss La Vera Muxworthy presided at the organ and rendered very sweetly Wagner's bridal chorus. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. W. Muxworthy, beneath and in front of an arch and bankment of holly, evergreens, house plants and myrtle. Seventy-five guests were present. The bride looked charming in white Japanese silk, valenciennes insertion and lace trimming and carried a grannie muf of white carnations and smilax. The bridesmaid, Miss Frances Dormer, sister of the bride, looked very pretty in cream cashmere, valenciennes insertion and lace trimming and carried pink chrysanthemums and smilax. Mr. James Parker, brother of the groom, was best man. The ring bearer was Miss Ida Parker, niece of the groom, and was attired in white Japanese silk and carried a cluster of white roses with ring in heart. After the usual congratulations all adjourned to the dining room where a dainty lunch was served. The presents were numerous and costly testifying to the popularity of the young couple. The bride's going away suit is of navy cord de chene trimmed with silk velvet and hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Parker will be at home to their friends at "Rosvale Farm," second line, Warwick. The GUIDE-ADVOCATE joins their many friends in best wishes.

T. B. TAYLOR & SONS.

around town trying to get the biggest pair of socks he can find. Don't be greedy. No matter how small your feet are, and consequently your socks, they will not be too small to hold a tiny watch or a beautiful set of shirt studs, or a scarf pin, or the gold piece that you have longed for.

A big sock suggests a fanning mill, a lawn mower or a go-cart. When Santa Claus comes along and sees that big sock, he dumps into it his big, clumsy presents, like a meat chopper, a soldering outfit, a buck-saw and Jackplane, a snow shovel and a cinder sifter. Stick to the small-sized sock—the sock that fits you—and Santa Claus will never dream of trying to cram a coal scuttle or a lawn mower into it.

The girls will never make such a faux pas. Not on your life. A girl would rather go without any presents than hang up a stocking that would hold two bushels of rough drops. It is only the boys who will make the blunder of hanging up the Big Sock.—The Khan.
