AN ALPINE TRAGEDY.

He Won a Wager and Then Lost His Life Through Pure Recklessness.

"There is a regrettable modern tendency to disrespect the difficulties of some of the great Alps, especially those whose ascents have appealed to popular favor. The Wetterhorn, or Storm peak, that huge rock embattled sentinel of the Grindelwald giants, is the most notorious example of this," writes George D. Abraham in The Pall Mall Magazine. "Truly even on mountains 'familiarity breeds contempt.' It has been lightly named 'the Ladies' peak,' but with far too terrible frequency a fearful revenge has been extorted; its death roll is equalled by few of the Alps."

"The following tragedy of 1908 is typical of many others. A young English lady, aided by the best of guides, made one of the earliest as-cents of the season and innocently left a silken handkerchief fluttering in the summit breezes. This was noticed through the large telescope at Grindelwald, and a Swiss workman, roused by the sight, wagged forth with that he would bring down the trophy single handed.

"He won the wager, but lost his life in the winning. Common sense prevailed to the extent of taking a companion as inexperienced as himself, and fortune smiled upon them until they almost reached the foot of the Great Couloir on their return.
There the young workman untied from the rope and, waving the trophy of success in his hand, started to glissade direct down the snow slope to the glacier.

"The friend's example and advice to follow the usual descent by the rocks at the side of the couloir were utterly disregarded. At express speed he rushed downward until suddenly he saw the end of the couloir overhanging nothingness and the glacier some hundreds of feet below. It was too late. With a shriek of warning to his friend he dashed outward over the edge into space and eternity. The next day the remains were recovered.
In his right hand the unfortunate victim of his own folly clutched the handkerchief; he brought it down to Grindelwald."

Queer Presents to Royalty.

The list of strange gifts to modern monarchs contain some curious items.
King Edward, shortly after his coronation, received a registered packet from an admirer, addressed to "His Majesty the King of England, House of Parliament, England," containing a gigantic prize potato, which the sender begged him to accept. Another strange present to his late majesty was the mummified hand of an Egyptian princess, which the king kept on his writing-desk at Sandringham, and used as a paper weight.

The Kaiser, too, was greatly amused seven years ago when a letter was delivered at the palace in Berlin containing a bank-note for 100 marks and an anonymous note begging the Emperor to use the money for the purchase of warm underwear.

"For," wrote the donor, "I saw your majesty at review yesterday, and it seemed to me that you were not so warmly clad as you should be."

Chimneys.

Chimneys are modern — that is, chimneys with fireplaces and flues.
None of the Roman ruins show chimneys like ours. There are none in the restored buildings in Herculaneum and Pompeii. Roman architects complained that their decorations were smoked up. A kitchen in Rome was always sooty. Braziers were used in the living rooms. The chimney of antiquity consisted of a hole in the soot. The wealthy Romans used carefully dried wood, which would burn in the room without soot. The modern chimney was first used in Europe in the fourteenth century. The oldest certain account of a chimney places it in Venice in 1347.

FOR SKIN DISEASES

A Treatment that Costs Nothing Unless It Provides Satisfactory Relief.

We have a grayish-white ointment with a pleasant odor that is clean to use, which we believe is the best known remedy for the relief of skin diseases. It is especially efficacious for overcoming eczema in all its various forms, ringworm, acne, pimples, blisters, insect bites, tetter, certain forms of ulcers, sores and wounds. It is strongly antiseptic, cleansing, soothing and healing.
It stops all itching and burning caused by skin eruptions.

We are so positive this ointment is unequalled that we offer it with the distinct understanding that if after having given it a reasonable trial, you are not satisfied with the results, you have only got to tell us and we will, without quibbling, return every cent paid us for it. We exact no promises or obligations whatever.

We want you to try Rexall Eczema Ointment. The first application gives a refreshing sense of relief, and because of its germ destroying power, it eradicates the germ or parasite which causes eczema and many other eruptions. It quickly allays the inflammation, gives protection to the inflamed surfaces, and helps restore healthy tissue. It is particularly active in relieving skin ailments peculiar to children. You certainly cannot lose anything by trying it.
We would not dare make this offer except we are positive Rexall Eczema Ointment will satisfactorily benefit you. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can only obtain it at our store.—The Rexall Store, J. W. McLaren, Watford.

MAN OF MANY SUPPERS.

Court Ball Comedy of a Small German Capital.

An amusing story of an incident at a masked ball given at the capital of one of the smaller German principal-ties is told in Berlin. The rule was printed upon the invitation cards that every one must come either in fancy dress or in a black domino.

In one of the rooms of the court a buffet had been set out, and the attendants there soon came to remark the unusually active appetite of one guest, duly masked and cloaked, who consumed extraordinarily large quantities of the more expensive delicacies and wines. After several minutes of vigorous eating he would leave the buffet and disappear among the throng of dancers. Soon, however, he would be back again, his appetite apparently as strong as ever.

After the fourth visit at short intervals of this hungry guest the head waiter called the attention of the master of ceremonies, who waited at the buffet until the masked stranger once more returned. He was again served with a full supply of food and wine and as he turned away was posively asked to show his invitation card.

At this some confusion was noticed in his bearing and the master of ceremonies requested him to remove his mask and cloak. To the astonishment of the servants and the amusement of the guests there was revealed the shamefaced figure of one of the soldiers of the guard on duty in the hall below. The guards had found a spare domino lying in the hall and they had been putting it on one after the other during the evening, so as to be able to go boldly into the ballrooms and eat their fill at the buffet unchallenged.

So amused at the story was the grand duke that he refused to allow the greedy soldiers to be punished.— Berlin Cor. London Mail.

WHY ZAM-BUK IS BEST
CURE FOR SKIN SORES

An illustration of the way in which Zam-Buk cures even the most serious and chronic cases of ulcers, eruptions and sores is provided by Mr. R. H. Barker, of Glencairn, Ont. He says:—

"I would not have believed that any remedy could cure so quickly, and at the same time so effectively, as Zam-Buk cured me."

"My face became covered with a kind of rash, which itched and irritated. This rash, then turned to sores, which discharged freely and began to spread. I first tried one thing and then another, but nothing seemed to do me any good, and the eruption got worse and worse, until my face was just covered with running sores."

"Apart from the pain (which was very bad), my face was such a terrible sight that I was not fit to go out. This was my state when some one advised me to try Zam-Buk. I got a supply, and, marvellous as it may sound, within little under a month every sore on my face was healed. I was so amazed that I have told the facts to several persons, and I have no objection to your stating my experience for the benefit of other sufferers."

Zam-Buk is purely herbal in composition, and is the ideal for babies and young children, for whose tender skin skin eruptions are so dangerous. Zam-Buk is a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, blood-poison, varicose sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

Labor Wasted.

"You went to a lot of trouble to train your dog."

"Yes," replied Mr. Growcher. "And it was a mistake. The only thing a man who teaches a dog tricks gets for his pains is to have a lot of people say the dog is smarter than he is."

SECTION 132 of the tobacco and cigar regulations forbids cigarettes being sold in any other way than by the stamped package. It has come to the notice of the inland revenue department that some dealers are selling cigarettes from packages, and this will not be permitted.
The inland revenue officers desire to warn all dealers that proceedings will be taken if they are caught selling cigarettes in any other way than by the properly stamped package.
