

Take One Tonight

—if you feel bilious, "headachy" and irritable—for that's a sign your liver is out of order. Your food is not digesting—it stays in the stomach a sour, fermented mass, poisoning the system. Just take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets—they make the liver do its work—they cleanse and sweeten the stomach and tone the whole digestive system. You'll feel fine in the morning. At all druggists, 25c., or by mail from Chamberlain Medicine Company, Toronto 14

THE POPULAR GIRL

The popular girl is not aggressive and does not wish to contradict and argue. She does not cause pain by a foolish or unguarded use of her tongue. If you invite her anywhere she always pays you the compliment of looking her best and being at her best. She makes the world a pleasant place for other people to dwell in by being pleasant herself. She does not want to take the front of the stage. Though if she has to do so she manages to take it prettily and without giving offense. She has equally nice manners for all and a touch of deference for age and experience. She is never bored; not because she does not meet with gray days, but because she has sunshine in her heart.

Good form

Dinner Calls.

Those who have been invited to a dinner party, whether an acceptance or regret was sent, should call on the hostess within a couple of weeks. Eight o'clock in the evening is considered the proper time. The lady and her escort send in a card apiece for each lady in the house, while the man adds one of his own for each man in the family. On entering the lady does not remove her hat, but the man leaves his hat, topcoat and cane in the hall. The conversation should be impersonal, to talk of people is not in good taste, subjects of general interest should be discussed, and no reference should be made by the callers as to this being a "dinner call," rather leaving it to be implied that the hostess has made herself so charming and gracious that her personality prompts the courtesy. Those who call in such formal fashion have an opportunity to make themselves either very agreeable or the reverse, and as agreeable people are always in request it will be the very best form and the "proper thing" to keep the conversation to a point that when it is time to leave those receiving will be quite truthful in expressing the wish, "I hope you will soon come again," a thing that is often said without being meant. In the course of the call it is a pleasant way to say something nice about having enjoyed the delightful dinner so recently. A caller may say: "We were so delighted to meet Miss B. at your dinner lately. It gave the opportunity to renew an old time acquaintance," or something of the sort, so giving the hostess to understand that her hospitality was thoroughly appreciated.

Business Manners.

To the business woman the men in the office are men, of course, but with a difference—just the difference that the fact that she is working with them must make. She will not be the less polite or the less pleasant, but she will be a little more reserved. In the sanctuary of her own home she may rightly unbend, but in the arena of business she must keep her armor of dignity and discretion. At home she may choose her men associates. In business she cannot, and her colleagues as well as her employers are the gift of necessity, not of free will. She should remember that in an office her sex is, as it were, on trial, and by her behavior it stands or falls in the eyes of others. Even the pretty license allowed her in the social world because of her sex is not for her here. It would be as much out of place as a ball dress in a kitchen. Yet the ordinary courtesy that every man should pay to a girl she should expect, though if it is denied her she must not always insist upon it beyond the barest limits of decent behavior. In short, she must learn never to obtrude her sex upon others and never to forget it herself, and at first this is not easy. But in time she will find it quite natural to assume her little business manner.

Tango Prizes.

Ten and coffee sets and services for feed drinks compose some of the more elaborate prizes for dancers. The odd looking little leather cases known as tango party boxes form another type of coveted prizes. Outside they are of alligator, morocco or suede in various dark tones, and they are lined with pale tinted satin or soft kid. They are finished in silver or gold, with key, lock and clasps to match the interior fittings of change purse, powder box, cologne bottle and mirror.

These party boxes and other vanity cases and purses when used for dance prizes for women are paired with cigarette and match cases and silver mounted or gold knobbed sticks for the men, and when bracelet watches are given a man's watch and fob completes the reward for the winning couple.

Borrowed Books.

To have a book that one has lent returned in a thumb and dog eared condition makes you "see red," more especially if you afterward find that it has been handed round among the friends of the borrower. It's such a cheek to lend a book belonging to another person! It is bad form to treat a book badly, no matter whether it is yours or not. Even with a library book don't turn down pages. It is so easy to mark one's place in some other way.

Serving Tea to Men.

Afternoon tea is often very much enjoyed by men, and the arrival of half a dozen or more masculines gives pleasure to the ladies assembled. Men usually like tea very hot and rather strong. Many prefer sugar and cream to lemon, and these should be provided. Salted nuts, bonbons, mints and olives with the sandwiches may well make refreshments the better enjoyed.

Lace Tea Cosies.

There are attractive tea cosies made of fine lace, mounted over silk and padded heavily under the silk. Pink is the color usually of the silk, but any desired color can be used to match the other fittings of the tea table.

Neutralizing a Shock.

If you know that you are going to hear a loud sound it is well to open the mouth, as the shock will then be neutralized. Noises in the ears are most annoying and sometimes resist all treatment. They are often associated with deafness and should therefore receive due attention.

When Preparing Eggs for Cooking.

Often when separating the white from the yolk of an egg the yolk becomes broken and falls into the white. Dip a cloth in warm water, wring it dry and touch the yolk with a corner of it, when the latter will adhere to the cloth and may easily be removed.

Asthma Can be Cured. Its suffering is as needless as it is terrible to endure. After its many years of relief of the most stubborn cures no sufferer can doubt the perfect effectiveness of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. Comfort of body and peace of mind return with its use and nights of sound sleep come back for good. Ask your druggist; he can supply you.

Newspaper Laws

- 1.—A postmaster is required to give notice by letter. Returning the newspaper does not answer the law, when a subscriber does not take his newspaper out of the office and state the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.
- 2.—If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrearages or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.
- 3.—Any person who takes a paper out of the post office, whether directed to his name or not, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.
- 4.—If a subscriber orders his paper stopped and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.
- 5.—The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the postoffice or removing, leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A one-piece suit, including coat and trousers, has been invented for men to wear while gunning or indulging in other outdoor pastimes.
