only thing that will be a menace to his progress will be the climatic conditions; for, with the growth of time, the country must expand from its temperate sections to those of the Arctic regions. There are some who say that year by year, the terrors of the North gradually diminish, that the old world is passing through a certain cycle, some-where in the vast infinitude of space, that is making the temperature more genial and more even. If this be true, and we know not how true it may be, then the young men of to-day, and those who are yet to be born, have conditions to look forward to that are far more favorable than they were to those of the past centuries. - Chauncey M. Deper A Little of Life's Wisdom.

"Perform a kind action and you will find a kind feeling growing within you eve if it was not there before. As you increase the number of your kind and charitable interests you find that the more you do for others the more you love them. Serve them, not be cause they are your friends, not because they are interesting, not because they are grateful-serve them for the simple reason NEE. that they are your brethren, and then you will very soon find that the fervent heart keeps time with the charitable hands." Smoking in The House. Husbands, especially young husbands, think it a grevance if they cannot smoke in every room of the house, and wives natur-ally dislike the odor of tobacco when it clings
