

What a Native Teacher can do.

Rev. Mr. Pearce writes to The London Chronicle of a station in New Guinea, named Tupuselei, where is only a South Sea Island teacher, but a man who has great influence over the people. There are 250 in the villiage who are thoroughly Christianized. The schools, as well as week day and Sunday services, are well attended. The children, to the number of nearly 200, are orderly and diligent in their studies, and an examination of the place by five missionaries shows that the station is the best in New Guinea. It is a striking illustration of what a Christianized native can accomplish.
