

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO MARKET—November 20, 1899.

From the Bartlett Frazier Co., Chicago. H. J. Coon, Manager, 238 1/2 Sacramento St.

MARKET GREW STRONGER AFTER OPENING — LIVERPOOL STEADY TO-DAY — WHEAT SAID TO BE LOW ENOUGH FOR INVESTMENT PURPOSES.

Chicago, Nov. 20.

Wheat opened at Liverpool 5-7 1/2 for Dec., 5-10 1/2 for March and 5-10 1/2 for May, which were the prices of the previous close. Cables later say that wheat is lower and corn dull.

New York openings 1/2 lower, stand as follows: Dec. 71 1/2, March 74 1/2, May 74 1/2-75

At Chicago are 1/2 lower for Dec., 1/2 lower for May; and in corn and oats practically at the level of previous close.

Provisions opened from 2 to 3 cents lower on reports of steady Liverpool market Chicago strengthened a little in the early market Receipts of Provisions: Hogs, 34,000; cattle 8000; sheep 14,000.

Grain receipts:

Car lots wheat 67, shipments 6,000.

Car lots corn 171, shipments 102,920

Car lots oats 134, shipments 51,525.

N. W. cars 540, last week 634, last year 1554

Primary receipts:

Last week 749,840, shipments 690,808.

Last year 1,427,002, shipments 1,567,021

Four ports 851,331, shipments 725,559

Traders look for further liquidation in December, but fear to sell short after the severe decline. Prices have touched the low point of the prolonged decline and the low point for the twelve months past. It would almost seem that wheat stock has reached a low enough level to offer some security to investment buyers. Some support of this description may perhaps be expected.
