INDUCTION OF THE REV. MR. OGG.

The Rev. Charles S. Ogg, who was sent out by the General Assembly Colonial Committee to the charge of St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, arrived here in the beginning of November last, and commenced his labors in his new charge. A unanimous call to him to become the permanent pastor of that congregation being laid before the Presbytery, and Mr. Ogg having expressed his acceptance of it, the Presbytery sustained the same, and appointed the Rev. James Steven, of Campbelltown, Restigouche, to preach and preside at his induction.

The Presbytery of Miramichi met accordingly in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, on Thursday, the 14th February, when the Rev. Mr. Steven preached an eloquent and appropriate sermon from Romans I. 16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, &c." After sermon, the Rev. Mr. Steven, having put to Mr. Ogg the questions appointed to be put to all ministers previous to their induction, and having received satisfactory answers thereto, did in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the authority of the Presbytery of Miramichi, admit him as minister of St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, he having been ordained by the Presbytery of Cairston in Scotland. The Rev. Mr. Steven thereafter delivered a very beautiful and appropriate address to the newly inducted pastor, and to the congregation over whom he was placed in the Lord.

Though the roads were in a very bad state for travelling, so that few could come from any great distance, there was a very good attendance, and at the conclusion of the services they gave their pastor a hearty welcome.

Previous to the dismissal of the congregation, Mr. James Miller, master of the Grammar School, Chatham, and one of the elders of St. Andrew's Church, in the name of the ladies of the congregation, read an address to Mr. Ogg, and presented him with a handsome pulpit gown and cassock, and a purse, as a testimony of the esteem which his labors among them have already called forth.

THE RECORD.

We hope that by April we will be able to gratify our readers by returning to our old monthly form. We were not really aware that our little periodical was so highly prized. From every quarter we have heard nothing but regret at the change, and assurance how entire was the satisfaction with it in its previous form. We hope that in returning to our old shape, we will have not only all our old but a host of new friends and supporters. There is no better token of a prosperous Church than a prospering periodical in connection with it.

We may mention that we continue to receive lists without the money. The great majority of these lists are probably as good as the money, and we are exceedingly unwilling to put aside a single subscriber, but having adopted the prepayment system we would respectfully urge our friends to support us in it. The other system has more than once placed us in extremis.
