THE PRESBYTERIAN REVIEW for January 1884, contains five leading articles.

1. The Sacraments and the children of the Church, by Dr. Van Dyke, showing the rights and privileges of the children of believing parents, an article that should be in the hands of every Christian father and mother.

2. Degeneration of Romanism since the Reformation by Professor Croskerry.

5. Healing through faith, by Dr. Stanton. The best and ablest that we have yet seen from the "Faith Cure" point of view.

4. The Medieval Communists.

5. A New Principle in Education. Then follow fifty pages of notices and Reviews of recent books which notices are of no small value to ministers and students Published by Anson, Randolph & Co. New York. Price $300 a year or 80 cents a number.

AN EXAMINATION OF THE PECULIAR PRINCIPLES OF THE BAPTISTS by Rev. D. B. Cameron of Acton, Ontario. A pamphlet published by C. Blackett Robinson, 5 Jordan St. Toronto, price 15 cts. The writer institutes a court, with counsel on either side, and before it he cites witnesses "from the days of John the Baptist until now." Witnesses from the New Testament, from the classic Greek, from the early Christian Fathers, from modern times, and in the lively form of question and answer by counsel and witness he gives clearly, simply, forcibly and conclusively the arguments against the exclusive position of the Baptists, viz, that baptize means dip, and nothing but dip; and, that the believer's children are not "heirs with him of the same promises."

THE WESTMINSTER QUESTION BOOK is one of the most compact and cheap helps on the Sabbath School lessons for the year. It will be found very useful. Macgregor and Knight, price 15 cents.
