FUND FOR THE RELIEF OF THE SUFFERERS BY THE MUTINY IN INDIA.

Mansion House, October, 1857.

Sir.—The disastrous events which have occurred in our Indian territory will already have come to your knowledge. You are also probably aware that a movement has originated in London, which is being seconded with great zeal and liberality throughout this kingdom, for the relief of those, both at home and abroad, who are sufferers by the mutiny, and the sanguinary war to which it has given rise.

We cannot doubt that our fellow subjects, over whom your influence extends as the Representative of the British Government must sympathize most deeply with the fallen, and bereaved, and that they will feel with us the binding obligation under which, as a nation, we are laid, to alleviate their afflictions and to compensate their wrongs.

Entertaining this conviction, I beg in the name of the Central Committee in London, most earnestly to request your kind co-operation! We are convinced that you will feel it alike a duty and a pleasure to adopt immediate measures for the augmentation of the Relief Fund which we are labouring to raise and which we are commissioned to distribute.

I beg to enclose to you some documents which we respectfully request you to circulate, and which will afford to some extent the necessary information, both as to the urgency of the case, and as to the principles which will guide the Relief Committee at home in the distribution of those funds which the humanity of their fellow countrymen may place at their disposal.

Let me beg you to originate immediate measures for obtaining contributions and general subscriptions, and transmit the amount contributed to the Bank of England, to the credit of the Indian Mutiny Relief Fund.

(Signed) THOMAS Q. FINNIE.

His Excellency Sir John A. LeMarchant, Lieut. Governor of Nova Scotia.

1,000,000 Bottles Sold.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1855 by J. RUSSELL SPALDING, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

All Infringements will be dealt with according to Law!

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S

This great and popular preparation is decidedly one of the most and best articles in the world for the HAIR!

It imparts a richness and brilliancy, cleans, ornaments, invigorates, embellishes, removes dandruff, relieves head-ache, and has probably been used for restoring and pre-venting the falling off of the hair with as much success as any article ever known. It has stood the test of time and use, and all can rely upon it.

ABRAHAM A. TRUAX, Esq., of Rotterdam, N. Y., writes:—"I am 75 years of age—and was bald 35 years—have used two bottles of your Rosemary, and my hair is now two inches long."

Rev. SYLVANUS CONN, Boston, Mass.—"We had rather pay for it than have other preparations for nothing," &c. Mrs. D. TAFT, Cambridge, Mass.—"Have used your Rosemary with great success in keeping my hair black, as age was turning it fast."

Dr. DANIEL B. CONNOR, Boston, Mass.—"Eight months ago I was bald—my hair is now long and healthy—I know your Rosemary has forced it to grow," &c.

OSMAN E. DODGE, Esq., vocalist, now of Cleveland, Ohio:—"It gives a rapid growth, and dark glossy texture, and does not soil the hat or pillow in the least; I know of nothing so valuable for the hair."

FRANCIS ADAMS, Esq., Boston, Mass.—"It is the best thing for children's hair—the ladies are delighted with it," &c.

Rev. C. W. DENISON, Buffalo, N. Y.—"I find it excel-lent for the hair."

Mrs. L. SWENNY, Boston, Mass.—"It restored my hair to bald head, and from grey to black color," &c.

Lon. C. HUNT, Lowell, Mass.—"To remove dandruff, and keep the hair moist and glossy we have never found anything so good."

Dr. HOFFMAN, Esq., (Editor German Weekly) Boston, Mass., and his wife, Eva, say—"It causes hair to grow vigorously—gives beauty and splendor—is better than Euro-pean articles," &c.

C. H. STROCKING, Esq. (Trinity College,) Hartford, Conn.—"By using it my hair turned from a sandy to brown color; it was naturally dry, but is now moist."

A. F. WOOD, Chemist, New Haven, Conn.—"I saw a fair head of very dark hair on a man that six weeks ago was bald. He had used nothing but your Rosemary," &c. More extracts can be added if room admitted. If you are not satisfied TRY IT.

Inquire for J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S Rosemary and take no other. Every bottle genuine has the facsimile signa-ture of the proprietor on it.
