

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

Introductory Address.	3	Patience	89
Wisdom and goodness of God in creation.	5	On Discipline.	90
Moral preaching.	8	Remarks	91
Zeal and dilligence in a Minister.	9	A chapter of inconsistencies.	92
Duraton of the Angels.	11	To our agents.	94
Dr. Doddridges' dream.	12	Meditation..	95
Importance of early piety,	14	Invocation.	95
Anecdote of Hooker.	15	Exhibitor.	95
Hopeless sorrows of a lost spirit.	16	On transient devotion.	97
Scripture illustration	18	Importance of a religious education.	102
The unfruitful fig-tree	19	Selfish prayers answered.	105
Religious intelligence an auxiliary to religious feeling.	22	Last moments of the Rev. J. Fletcher.	106
Comfort in affliction.	24	A specimen of Welch preaching.	107
On keeping in view the great end of life	26—49	Successful preaching.	109
Pure religion.	28	Affectionate preaching	110
The nature and consequence of sin	34	Death of Dr. Fisk	ib
Necessary qualifications for a minister	44	Account of the work of God on the Augusta circuit.	111
Account of the death of Mrs. Chisholm.	45	Account of &c. on the Camborough circuit.	113
Revival intelligence.	47	Account of &c. on the Waterloo circuit	115
True method of obtaining divine knowledge.	56—73	Amusements proper for Christians	116
Love and Hatred.	60	Discipline—Early Methodism	118
Nature, and effects, of the love of Christ.	63	Camp-meeting notices.	119
Preparation for death.	64	Spring	ib
Indifference	66	Obligation of the Curch to support its ministers	121. 145
An Infidels request.	67	A singular Providence.	125 149
The Sailor's mother.	69	Society for the promotion of Christian union.	130
A common occurence moralized.	70	Awful death of a scoffer.	122
Death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ.	76	All in all.	133
Account of the person of Jesus Christ.	78	Prayer meetings	134
The vision of Mirza	79	Religion & morality essential to political prosperity, & public security	135
Xerxes killed by Artabanus.	82	Little William	136
The profane sea Captain.	83	The deserted Children	139
Sin the sting of death.	84	The power of Christianity	ib
Death deprived of its sting.	85	Account of the &c. on the Nelson circuit	140
On the dispositon which we &c.	86	Memoir of Mr. J. Gawthroup.	142