

REJOICE O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: BUT KNOW that for all these things GOD WILL BRING THEE INTO JUDGMENT

O SHUN the Race-course, Billiard Hall, Theatre, Tavern, Cigar Store, &c., where evil habits are formed, where time is wasted, health injured, character degraded, conscience sacrificed, and the SOUL RUINED!

ASK AND RECEIVE.

T St. Cross, near Winchester, a dole is still given to the passer-by. No matter who he may be, he has but to ask and receive a horn of drink and a piece of bread. We went to the door and were served at once without question. Just so at the gate of mercy, grace is given freely to all who ask for it sincerely, in the name of Jesus, be they who they may. No money is needed or would be taken; merits of man are not available at mercy's door. The good woman gave to us and our three companions a mere mouthful of bread each, and when we asked if that was the usual quantity, she answered, "No; but you gentlemen do not want bread." Just so; the poor man would have had a large slice from the loaf, but we were too well dressed. Depend upon it, none get so much of Jesus as those who deeply know and feel their poverty of soul. Persons in a conscious state of spiritual wealth never can prize the sinner's Saviour as he ought to be prized. Emptiness, famine, ravenous hunger—these bring the Lord Jesus to a high price in the market. Those who are really sensible of their sins and their depravity of nature will not be put off with half a Christ, they need a whole Christ, a full Christ, and nothing but Christ. O to hunger and thirst after the Lord, for then we shall be filled!

At St. Cross the supplies are generally exhausted by twelve o'clock, and they are replenished no more that day. Woe to us if it were so with Jesus; but, blessed be His name, He stands waiting all the day long to give the bread of heaven to the hungry. He refuses none, though they come when the day is far spent. There is enough in Him for all who come or ever will come.

Weary wayfarer, why do you hunger when bread is to be had? Why will you die when there is life in Christ? Thy blood will be upon thine own head if thou dost neglect the great salvation provided by free grace and dying love. Come and welcome to Jesus! Come now!—Spurgeon.
