No. 2

And as it is appointed unto men once
to die, but after this
the judgment: so Christ was once offered to bear the sins
of many.

HENREWS ix. 27, 28.

WE return our sincere thanks to Messrs. Thos. Bengough, C. D. Massey and James Leslie, for the large amount of reading matter so kindly donated for the use of our work.

OUR heartfelt prayers and sympathies are with our Railway Secretary Bro. Jex, in the affliction which has befallen him in the death of his beloved Mother. She has been ill for several months of an incurable disease, (Cancer), and during the time of illness suffered very much. She passed away on Saturday 17th inst., at her residence Cobourg.

We have felt deeply for Bro J., during the past few months. Knowing as we did, that he was laboring earnestly among the Railway men and at the same time was carrying the weight of thought concerning his sick mother at whose side he fain would have been, to cheer her.

May the Lord comfort the bereaved ones.

IN our next issue (D.V.) we shall give some interesting particulars concerning the first Railway passenger train in Ontario, with illustrations of tickets issued, and first schedule of rates, etc.

He will swallow up death in victory.
