A Now York broker, who left the street threefor four years ago, one day received a call from a mau up the river, who announced that old Blank was dead.

"Old Blank. Yes, I remember him; so he is dead?

"Yes, and his hoirs are trying to break the will?"

"They are?"

"They are?"
"Yes, and they are going to have it he was crazy. They want you as a witness."
"Want me? Why. I know nothing of the old man, except that I once invested $10,000 for him."

for him."
"Well, that's all they expect to prove by you."
"What ch !"

"What is I"
"Why, if you come into court and swear that the old man let you have $10 000 to invest for him the case is made out. When can you come?"
He never went.—Wall Street News.
