BOOK NOTICES, REVIEWS, &c.

THE CILICIAN CATECHISM, Illustrated, by Mrs.
C. H. Smith. New York: James Pott, Publishers, 12 Astor Place, pp. 72. Price, 10c.

Among the quantities of illustrations of the Church Catechism, we desire to bring to the notice of our readers the above little pamphlet, prepared by the wife of one of the clergy of Buffalo, N. Y., who has for some years had charge of an infant class. It is intended for the younger children of the Church. Every lesson has an outline picture, which may be put on a blackboard or used as given in the book. These are illustrations, all of them, very simple and striking, designed to enforce through the eye the teaching of the lesson. Each lesson has also a story which may be enlarged upon by the teacher, or given as it is in the book. For an infant class or younger classes in our Sunday Schools we can strongly commend this pamphlet.
It contains 41 lessons, and has 72 pages of matter. The price is only 10c., and if used by the teacher with a blackboard, it will be found to be a valuable help in explaining the Catechism.

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER, 1549, commonly called the First Book of Edward VI., to which is added the Ordinal of 1549 and the Order of Holy Communion 1548, with an introduction, by Morgan Lix, S.
T. D., Rector of Trinity Church, New York. New York: Church Calendar Press.

This is a reprint of the first Prayer Book of the Reformed Church of Christ in England, which came into use in England June 9th, A.
D. 1549, by authority of the Church in Convocation and the State in Parliament. In less than two years another book was substituted for it, generally known as the Second Prayer Book of Edward VI., which was the first Book revised and altered to suit the views of certain "ultra-reformers" in England. It was, however, never used, but was made the basis of the Prayer Book of 1559. Every clergyman and layman who desires to become familiar with the history of the various revisions should possess a copy of this little book, which is well printed on good paper, contains 331 pages, and can be procured for $1.00, post free, from Jas.
Pott, Church Publisher, 12 Astor Place, New York.

CONSCRIPTION.

From H. B. Smith, Esq., a prominent Merchant of Huctochie, Kent County, N. B., under date June 8th, 1877:—

DEAR SIR,—I have suffered for some years past with Cough from Affection of the Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Weakness of the Chest, and Want of Appetite, and have tried many so called remedies but without any effect whatever until I commenced using Robinson's Pulmonary Emulsion. I have now taken 3 bottles, and find this quite equal to what it is represented to be,
for it has worked like a charm, and I can cordially recommend it to all who are affected as I have been, as I feel it is going to make a perfect cure of me. I still continue it, and I must say I never took anything equal to it.
If you wish to make any use of this for the benefit of yourself and the world at large you can do so, for I think it should be known.

I remain, your truly,

H. B. SMITH.
