MR. CHAS. H. HYMAN, M.P.

The gentleman pictured above belongs to the legal profession, and has an office for the carrying on of that honest and indispensable business at the city of London. He enjoys a great personal popularity in that city which was his birthplace and the scene of his trials and triumphs as a school boy. A few years ago he was nominated as the Liberal candidate for Parliament against Hon. John Carling, and succeeded in defeating that gentleman. The election was contested and, of course, Mr. Hyman was unseated. The same candidates again took the field, and once more Mr. Hyman won the battle, so that he is at present the member for London. He has, for certain reasons of a personal character, refrained from taking his seat in the House, since his selection, and Mr. Carling is kindly performing his parliamentary duties for him. As it would not be strictly legal for the latter gentleman to sit for London, which is only entitled to one member, he is understood to be representing Judge Elliott, and the arrangement seems to give every satisfaction to the Government.
