The regular weekly concert and ocial of the Catholic Sailors' Club was held on Thursday evening. There was a large attendance and a eplendid programme of vocal and instrumental selections was rendered by the following ladies and gentlemen:-

Misses Riley, McGillis, Sangster and the Misses Maggie and Mabel Kitts, Messes. Hapereau, Polan, McGovern. O'Loughlin, Gorman, Carpenter and Lawrence. The seamen who took part were: Messes, Rooney, Morrison and Regan. The concert was varied a little from the usual a French song being sung, and Mr. Dugald McDonald (one of the original founders of the club). made some pleasing remarks in reference to the good the club was doing. and the credit due to these who were continuing to support it, Mr. F. B McNamee being specially mentioned.

The champion cake walkers of Canada announced last evening that they would give a benefit concert for the club at the club rooms on Tuesday, the St. Mary's Church, was one of the largest held in the East End for many 8th inst.

That the Club has made great strides of progress during the last two years is apparent to everyone that follows its endeavors on behalf of the hundreds of Catholic seamen that vieit the port.
The most recent evidences of appreciation of the efforts of this organiza-tion comes from His Holiness the Pope, as may be seen from the following communications.

Canadian College Rome November 18th 1897. To HIS HOLINESS PUPE LEO XIII.

Most Holy Father,-Humbly prostrate at the feet of Your Holiness, the undersigned Archbishop of Montreal

1-That, four years ago, an Association was founded in his Episcopal City in behalf of Catholic sailors.

2-That this thoroughly apostolic work, which has enlisted the sympathy of the citizens of Montreal, has done much good under the influence of the - charity it has exercised.

3.-That, imitating the example thus set. Catholics of other cities of America and Europe have founded associations of a similar nature with the approbation of their Bishons.

3-That, should Y ur Holiness deign to bless and encourage this eminently Catholic Society by a Brief, it would develope and progress.

5-Tnat the zealous members of the association would be most grateful did your Holiness confer this signal favor and add such indulgences as you might, in your charity, be pleased to determine,

In consequence whereof, the said Archbishop of Montreal, for the greater glory of God and the good of souls, most humbly prays your Holiness to grant the desired brief to the Catholic Sailors' Club.

And may God preserve Your Holiness for many years to come to our filial affection.

PAUL BRUCHESI, Archbishop of Montreal. Translated from the original, 18th

July, 1898. LUKE CALLAGHAN Priest, Assistant Chanceller.

MOST HOLY FATHER -Paul Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal, humbly prostrate at the test of Your Holiness, desirous of ensuring the progress of a pious association established in his diocese in behalf of Catholic sailors.

In the audience given on the Blat day of February, 1898, our Holy Father Leo XIII, by the grace of God, Pope, at the request of the undersigned Secre tary of the Sacred Congregation of the Propaganda, was pleased to grant to all the pious members of the aforessid association a plenary indulgence to be gained twice a year on whatever days they may choose, provided they approuch the aircrament of Penance and the H ly Euclariet and pray for some time according to the intentions of the Holy Father

Given at Rome from the Palace of the Sacred Congregation of the Prop :ganda on the day and year as above. A , ARCHDISHOP OF LARISSA, ST. GABRIEL PARISH.

The parishioners of St. Gabriel par ish are always actively engaged in the advancement of their parish. On Tuesday evening a large and enthusisetic meeting of the members of Branch No. 74 of the C. M. B. A. was held at their hall in the basement of Et G.briels Church. After routine business was transacted, it was unanimously decided to have a solemn Requiem Mass chanted at St. Gabriet's Church on Saturday next, at 7.30 a.m., for the repose of the souls of all decerned members.

On Sunday morning at seven o'clock. the members of the b anch will receive. Holy C. mmunion in a body. They will assemble in their hall at 6 30 and any members of sister branches are cordially invited to attend.

At the same meeting the pastor of St. Gabrie.'s. Rev. Fatter O'Meara, was presented with a beautiful oil painting, of himself, as a contribution to the parish bazzar which is to open on the 9th instant. Ene next meeting of the Branch will be an important, one as at it will be nominated all the tifficers for the en-filing term? Branch 74 is most success ful and riflicts geert credit upon its President Mr. W. ### OBITUARY.

MR. STEPHEN KEEGAN.

Tas death of Mr. Stephen Keegan, who was for many years caretaker of St. Mary's School, Craig street, took place on Munday at the Royal Victoria Hospital atter a long liness. The de ceased contracted a cold some months ago while at work and was stricken with heart failure and dropsy. All that medical skul and treatment could do were done, but the inevitable hand of death claimed its victim at last. Mr. Keegan was a devout Catholic, a true and good lather and an bonest and hard working citizen. The luneral, which took place on Thursday morning from years. The members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Catholic Order of Foresters, and the pupils of St. Mary's school to the number of about three number of oitizens. The Church was heavily draped and a solemn Requirem Mass was surg. A sad leature in connection with his death is that his wire, who died lately, was buried from the same church, thus leaving a young and helpless family of seven children to be described of the tond and children to be deprived of the fond and tender care of a loving mother and of the support of a wortey father. Never in my life did I know what a day's sickness was until March. 1895, when without any known cause and without any warning I was stricken down with an epileptic fit. It came on in the night, causing great consternation in the household, as my wife, who never saw anything of the skind before thought it was my end; as for myself I neither felt nor knew anything that was going on about me. After roming out of the convulsion, which they tell me usually lasted from fifteen to thirty minutes, I would fall bito a heavy sleep from which I would awake with a dull, heavy feeling, and all the muscles of my body would be sore. This would pass away and in n day or two after the attack I would be able to attend to my farm work. but strange to say every four months after as regular as a clock I would be seized with a fit, which always came on in the night. Various dectors and specialists were consulted and I took several different medicines, but without effecting a cure. Several doctors said the disease was incurable. I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pitls in the newsparers and was advised by friends who had experienced cures from other seemingly incurable ailments, to try them. In November 1896 I commenced and kept on taking them regularly for a year. The dreaded period passed and passed again and again without a repetition of my trouble, and I felt that I was at last released from this terrible malady. I am now in the best of health, and I attribute

PROTESTANT INTOLERANCE AT BOSTON.

Boston Protestantism, notwithstanding its Harvard University and its bonsted enlightenment and culture, still retains the hideous bigotry and intolerance of the Pitgrim tathers. In the Boston Times of Oct, 23 we find a statement from "a prominent Democrat," in answer to the reporter's question, "How do the Roman Catholics stand with regard to the school board and the schools?" and this is some of "The Protestant members of the School Board in control of affairs carry their proscriptions so for that they will not allow themselves to have any dealings whatever with Roman Catholies, even in a school district peopled almost entirely by Roman Catholics. " 'Are you a Catholic?' he asked. " 'Yes, she replied.

"That is the reason," he said, and the teacher departed, sudder but wiser. "Now they are felling a story of a member of the School Rourd who was A FENLON FARMER TELLS OF HIS asked for a position as teacher by a young woman who was a graduate of the high and normal schools. " 'You'are a Cathelic, are you not?" avas the committeeman's first question.

" 'Yes, sir." " Do you not know that you will be obliged to read the Protestant version of the Lord's prayer in school every morning? " 'Yes, sir.'

" Does not your conscience rebel at "No, sir. It is my duty, and I said the tchool committeening, showing his called to the door. 'You'd better go to that parochial school over there and get a ich." "As a matter of religion incidents like these may or may not be of consequence-it is immaterial. But they show that the selie I committeemends as they please, They handle teachers, contractors or the city's money as they please, and nobody says may."

But somebody ought to say "may"the Catholies of Paston, for example, Why don't they do a little agitating? The bigots will carry or their proscription of Catholies as long as they are allowed to do it. Mere then half the pepulation of Roston are Catholics. Hereditary, bondsmen, know ye not?
