The Churchman's Friend, FOR THE DIFFUSION OF INFORMATION

RELATIVE TO THE United Church of England and Ireland Her Dootrines and Her Ordinances.

Edited by Clergymen.] [Published Montbly PARIS, 1st OCTOBER, 1855 PROSPECTUS

The CHURCHMAN'S FRIEND is intended to supply a want, which, we believe, every Canadian Clergy man must have often and painfully experienced. We cannot perhaps be surprised that in a land where the number of the mir inters of the Church is so disproportionate to the population and extent of the country, there should be a lamentable degree of ignorance respecting the history of the Church, Her doctrines, and Her orlunance. Yet it is plainly impossible to bring pit; there we must needs speak on more glorious thomes, and preach the glad tidin s of our common redemption. The Churchman's Friend has been projected to meet this difficulty: it is in ended literally to fulfit the promise made in the title; namely, to convey information, relative to the subjects indicated.

The Theology which we wish to impart is aptive and honestly expressed in the first motto which we placed at the head of our publication, "Quod semper, quod ubique, quod ub omnibus, reditum est, tenemus, "Lest which the subjects in the first motto which we placed at the head of our publication, "Quod semper, quod ubique, quod ub omnibus, reditum est, tenemus, "Lest which the subjects in the first motto of these Pills, that they may have been proved in all parts of the well that nothing has been found equal to them that the stormach complaint generally. They see cases of disorders of the liver, dyspepsia, all that nothing has been found equal to them that the stormach complaint generally. They see the atomach complaint generally. They see the stormach generally seeds of the stormach generally stores to the stormach general

"Quod semper, quod ubique, quod ub omnibus, ereditum est, teneumus, "Lee us hold fast that, which always, which every where, which by all has been believed," for that only is the with of the Catholic Church. While the temper and spirit in which we desire to convey these truths, is with equal simplicity and correctness indicated by our second mono, In necessariis Unitus, in dubiis liberatas, in omnibus carstas. 'In necessary things unity, in doubtful things therty, in all things charity."

With this object in view, we purpose to issue, for the present, one number monthly, commencing on the 1st October; but we hope considerably to enlarge, or to publish more frequently, as soon as we receive the requisite amount of encouragement. A large proportion of encouragement. of encouragement. A large proportion of of the form of short tracts, dialogues, and tales; with, with anecdotes scraps of information and other selections, all strictly tending to illustrate the practiples we wish to advocate, with make up the contents. While we hope to offer matter sufficiently interesting as to make it not without value even to the more highly educated, it will be our endeavour to clothe it in such plain and supple languige, as to render our little publica-tion a welcome visitor in the farm house and the tion a welcome visitor in the farm house and the cottage, and a source of pleasure, as well as profit to both young and old. For the young especially, some portion of our space will always be set apart; and we venture to suggest to clergymen and superintendents of Sunday Schools, the advantage of encouraging their elderly scholars to avail the macross of the reduced terms offered to those who subsectibe for a number of course They will thus be furnishing the young persons committed to their charge with a supply of reading, at once sound in its teaching and attractive in character, and at the same time be lightening in character, and at the same time be lightening their own labor.

We beg particluarly to call attention to our terms of publication, from which it will be seen that eight copies will be forwarded to one address for fifteen shillings, currency, a year, and fifteen copies for £1 five shillings. But as these sumare so small that they will not pay for the trouble of collecting, it is absolutely necessary t at ""An" cointinundar, while it advance.
