

C. EVALUATIONS

1. by interviewees
2. others

The reports on each of the countries studied are available for viewing for interested parties. On the conclusion of the study, Prof. Schroeder-Gudehus prepared the attached paper, "Réflexions sur les caractéristiques d'un 'home base' efficace" (thoughts about the nature of an effective home base), giving her views on the possible design of a home base for the Canadian Science and Technology Counsellor System.
