

ARTICLE IX

1. The Parties shall consult at any time at the request of either Party to ensure the effective fulfillment of the obligations of this Agreement. The International Atomic Energy Agency may be invited to participate in such consultations upon the request of the Parties.

2. The appropriate governmental authorities shall establish administrative arrangements to facilitate the effective implementation of this Agreement and shall consult annually or at any other time at the request of either. Such consultations may take the form of an exchange of correspondence.

3. Each Party shall, upon request, inform the other Party of the conclusions of the most recent report by the International Atomic Energy Agency on its verification activities in the territory of that Party, relevant to the nuclear material subject to this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled amicably through mutual consultation or negotiation between the two Parties.

ARTICLE XI

1. Each Party shall provide the other Party with written notification when it has complied with its relevant constitutional and legal requirements for entry into force of this Agreement. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the later of such notifications.

2. This Agreement may be amended at any time with the written consent of the Parties. Any amendments to this Agreement shall enter into force in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 1. of this Article.

3. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of 30 years. If neither Party has notified the other Party of its intention to terminate the Agreement at least six (6) months prior to the expiry of that period, this Agreement shall continue in force for additional periods of 10 years each unless, at least six (6) months before the expiration of any such additional period, a Party notifies the other Party of its intention to terminate this Agreement.

4. Notwithstanding the suspension, termination or expiration of this Agreement or any co-operation hereunder for any reason, Article III, paragraph 5. and Articles IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX and X shall continue in effect so long as any items subject to those Articles remain in the territory of the Party concerned or under its jurisdiction or control anywhere, or until such time as the Parties agree that such items are no longer usable for any nuclear activity relevant from the point of view of non-proliferation.
