

relevant to today's business environment. MDS will focus on assisting companies through the assessment of a simple marketing plan for the penetration of international markets. Designed for both experienced and nascent exporters, it will share the risk of these international marketing initiatives with the Canadian private sector.

 MDS replaces previous market identification visits, participation in trade fairs abroad, incoming foreign buyers, innovative marketing and marketing agreements.*