Average and a Members of the House of Commons: 30 The House of Commons to be difficult and disturbing. The dislocations resulting from the ravages of war have become increasingly apparent. In Europe production has made only a partial recovery. In Asia, over large areas, active fighting as continues. Shortages of the necessities of life, particularly of food; are still acute. In many countries; political and social unrest is serious. Failure to agree on peace settlements with Germany and Austria is preventing the recovery of Europe.

"Canada was recently represented at a meeting of the nations of the Commonwealth in Canberra. Problems related to the peace settlement in the Pacific were discussed in an exploratory manner. The Government has welcomed the initiative of the United States in proposing an early conference on the Peace Treaty with Japan.

"While unsettled conditions still prevail in Europe and Asia, Mathematical Canada has been tinued to enjoy general prosperity. Employment and national income have reached levels never before attained. Our country has not been unaffected, however, by the problems and difficulties of other countries. Many nations with which we trade have been unable to restore their full productive capacity. Their consequent inability to increase their exports in sufficient measure to pay for their imports has greatly complicated Canada's foreign main exchange position. The first makes are made as the manages of the contract of the contrac

A permanent solution of our exchange problems and the future well-being of the nation depend upon the revival of world trade. An important step forward in this direction has been the successful conclusion of the recent discussions at Geneva. A positive achievement was the conclusion of trade agreements with eighteen other nations. You will be asked to approve these agreements and Canada is now represented at the United Nations Trade Conference in Havana, and sawhich it is hoped will result in the establishment of an International Trade Organization along lines agreed to at Geneva. The trade agreements and the establishment of an International Trade Organization will provide a sound foundation for the expansion of world commerce. production and employment.
