

- The replacement vessel has a history of fishing for albacore tuna in the EEZ of the United States;
 - The replacement vessel is one of the 179 vessels listed on the USA68 list;
 - The replacement vessel does not exceed the length overall of the original vessel it is replacing.
- (g) As soon as possible after receipt of the other Party's Seasonal List, and subject to paragraph 1(f), the receiving Party shall determine whether the list received meets the criteria of paragraph 1(b) and shall so inform the other Party in order to enable the albacore fishery to proceed pursuant to this Treaty.
- (h) Should one Party object to the inclusion of a particular vessel on the Seasonal List of the other Party, the two Parties shall consult. Such objection may be made on the basis that the vessel in question has been involved in serious or repeated fisheries violations or offenses. In the event of consultations, any actions pursuant to paragraph 1(e) with regard to other vessels shall not be delayed. Following consultations, the relevant Party shall notify its respective vessels that both Parties agree that the vessel shall not be included on the Seasonal List.

2. Each vessel, prior to entering and leaving the EEZ of a Party shall, if so required by that Party, inform the appropriate authorities and provide them with the vessel name, radio call sign or Vessel Identification Marking, captain or operator's name, and the reason why the vessel is in that Party's EEZ.

3. When in the EEZ of the other Party, each vessel is required to have its name and radio call sign or Vessel Identification Marking prominently displayed where they are clearly visible both from the air and from a surface vessel.

4. Each Party shall ensure that its vessels maintain accurate and complete records of catch, effort and other data on report forms provided by their respective governments while fishing pursuant to this Treaty. Each Party shall develop a real-time data protocol to report catches by the vessels of one Party fishing in the EEZ of the other Party. Any logbooks and related databases maintained by a Party shall be made available to the other Party regularly for verification purposes, subject to the Parties' respective rules on data confidentiality.
