SWEDISH TRADE MINISTER TO VISIT CANADA

The Honourable James Kelleher, Minister for International Trade, announced today the visit to Canada of the Minister of Trade of Sweden, Mats Hellstrom. Minister Kelleher and Minister Hellstrom will meet privately on Friday, September 28, and Mr. Kelleher will host a luncheon for the Swedish Minister with representatives of the Canadian business community.

The Swedish delegation will review multilateral and bilateral trade issues with officials of the Department of External Affairs.

Following his meetings in Ottawa, the Swedish Trade Minister will visit Vancouver October 1 and 2, to preside at a symposium on Swedish rail technology, and for meetings with provincial Ministers. He will also have discussions with officials of Expo 86, the World Transportation Fair, and tour the Expo 86 site.
