Mr. Hodgson: Mr. Speaker, I was paired with the hon. member for Pontiac-Timiskaming (Mr. Proudfoot). Had I voted, I would have voted against your ruling.

Mr. Speaker: The question is on the motion that I do now leave the chair for the house to resolve itself into committee of the whole on the proposed resolution.

Mr. Fulton: Mr. Speaker, in order that the Minister of Finance may have the opportunity of doing now that which he said he would consider doing later, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Lanark (Mr. Blair):

That the house do proceed to another order, namely order No. 12.

Mr. Speaker: May I point out to the hon. member that I cannot accept his motion because the order that is now before the house is a government order, and the other order that the hon. member now considers we should proceed with is order No. 12, which is another government order, and government orders may be moved only by the leader of the house. I would refer hon. members to standing order 18(2). There is also citation 136, which reads:

All motions referring to the business of the house should be introduced by the leader of the house.

By virtue of standing order 18(2) the government has full jurisdiction over its own orders. Standing order 18(2) reads:

Except as provided in standing order 56, government orders may be called in such sequence as the government may think fit.

Therefore, I cannot accept the hon. member's motion. Do hon. members wish to ask
