Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment lost.

Mr. Brown: I was paired, Mr. Speaker. Had I voted, I would have voted against the amendment.

Mr. Tucker: Mr. Speaker, I was paired. Had I voted, I would have voted against the amendment.

[The Acting Speaker (Mr. Rinfret).]

Mr. Speaker: Is the house ready for the question on the main motion?

Some hon. Members: Question.

Some hon. Members: No.

• (10:30 p.m.)

Mr. Speaker: There is no unanimous agreement. Should I submit the matter again to the house as to whether there is agreement that we proceed with the main motion?

Some hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Marchand moved the third reading of the bill.

Motion agreed to and bill read the third time and passed.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Starr: Mr. Speaker, I wonder if the government house leader could tell us what the business will be for tomorrow and the following days, if possible.

Mr. MacEachen: Tomorrow we will continue with the second reading of the bill on capital punishment. When that is passed we will go into committee and complete the committee stage. Following that we will go into committee on the bill on corporate and consumer affairs, and then we will deal with the budget bills. We will discuss these items in this order.

Mr. Starr: When the house leader mentioned the budget bills did he mean the first half of the budget bills?

Mr. Bell (Carleton): Surely the minister meant the resolutions.

Mr. MacEachen: Yes, the resolutions. I thank the hon. member for Carleton.

PROCEEDINGS ON ADJOURNMENT
MOTION

A motion to adjourn the house under provisional standing order 39A deemed to have been moved.

DOMINION-PROVINCIAL CONFERENCE—
INQUIRY AS TO PROPOSED AGENDA

Mr. Auguste Choquette (Lotbinière): Mr. Speaker, a few days ago, I asked the Minister of Justice (Mr. Trudeau) a question to determine whether the agenda of the federal-provincial conference which is to take place shortly had been decided upon.
