IMMIGRATION

PERSONS LIVING IN CANADA UNDER DEPORTATION ORDERS OR CONTRARY TO COURT RULINGS—QUESTION ANSWERED

Senator Perrault: Honourable senators, on April 26 Senator Ewasew made an inquiry with respect to a report made by a public servant by the name of Boris Domazet. I am referring to page 640 of Senate Hansard.

The Honourable Senator Ewasew stated that the report had been distributed at that time to a certain number of members of Parliament, and had received considerable attention in the press. His request was that the report be tabled in the Senate. I have now ascertained that the report is, really, a document authored by a private citizen, an individual known as Mr. Domazet. The report was sent in the form of a letter, with attachments, to a private member of Parliament. It was not tabled in the other chamber, and I can only suggest to honourable senators who may be interested in this particular letter that they contact the member of Parliament in question, in the other place, who may have additional copies available. It is in no sense an official document.
