

London—The Emperor Alexander—Case of Murder at Stafford—Tintern Abbey—Meeting with his Father at Cupar—The new Actress, Miss O'Neil—Victory over Ellenborough—The Verulam Club. . . Page 283

CHAPTER XI.

JANUARY, 1815—DECEMBER, 1816.

Epiphany Sessions—Wilkie's 'Distress for Rent'—Battle of Waterloo—Gifford's Success on the Western Circuit—Letters from Paris—Increase of his Business in Case-answering—Miss O'Neil and Mdlle. Mars—The Waverley Novels—Case before the Master of the Rolls—Abbott made a Judge—Case of Webster against the 'St. James's Chronicle'—Lady Frances Webster—Squabble with Sir Vicary Gibbs—Lays down his Reports and sets up Riding Horses—Retires to Bognor for his Health—Publishes the last Number of his Reports. 320

CHAPTER XII.

JANUARY, 1817—NOVEMBER, 1819.

Dinner Party at the Verulam—His Pupils—Death of Horner—Gifford made Solicitor-General—Arbitration Case in Glamorganshire—Thinks of getting into Parliament—Return of his Brother from India—They go the Circuit Together—Visit to Cupar, and Tour in the Highlands with his Father and Brother—Death of Sir Samuel Romilly—Business on the Spring Circuit, 1819—Gives up Attending Quarter Sessions—Lanarkshire Election Committee—Portrait of Dr. Campbell by Raeburn—Applies for a Silk Gown—George Campbell buys Edenwood, near Cupar, Fife—They Travel Abroad Together—French Courts of Justice. 350

CHAPTER XIII.

JANUARY, 1820—DECEMBER, 1821.

Gives a Dinner Party—Inscription for Edenwood—Dines with Mr. Scarlett—Question of Royal Divorce—Finds the Course of True Love does not run Smooth—Ride Round the Regent's Park—Eton Montem—His Suit is not Successful—Letters from the Circuit—The Queen's Trial—Goes in the Long Vacation to Paris—Becomes a Candidate for Brooks's—Bill Against the Queen Withdrawn—Dull Christmas Holidays—Studies Italian—Holds Briefs for Mr. Scarlett—Brougham, Denman and Queen Caroline—Engagement to Miss Scarlett—Letter from Dr. Campbell to Miss Scar-