Toronto Teams Expected to Win Today's Rugby Battles

Al Proctor Sells Grand Opera To F. J. Daly of Peterboro

DECIDING GAMES IN TWO UNIONS

McGill and Varsity at the Stadium — Argonauts Play in Hamilton.

Toronto is vitally interested in the two senior games to be played today. Both games will decide a championship in their respective unions and Toronto is represented with a team in each union.

Varsity and McGill play for the intercollegiate honors at the Stadium, and it is here that Toronto will turn out in force. Argonauts go to Hamilton to give the Tigers battle for the Interprovincial honors. The college union fixture should be one of the greatest games ever staged locally. Varsity downed McGill two weeks ago and will be slight favorites today. The U. of T. squad have been specially groomed for this struggle and will play much the same kind of football that they did two weeks ago. It was winning football and they smothered the McGill tricks by carrying the fight to them at all times.

Dick Sheehy is the only regular that will be unable to start, and his place will be filled by Doyle, while Red McKenzie will be in reserve to jump in at the right moment. Charlie Gage will direct operations from his usual position on the field. Fit and ready are the local students, and they will play the game at all times.

Thousands of seats have been sold and it looks like a record crowd. The reserved seat gate will be opened at 1.30 and the bleacher gate at 2 o'clock.

The teams:

Varsity—Flying wing, Gage; halves, Carr, Doyle, Lindsay; quarter, Stratton; scrimmage, Horner, Gardner, O'Reilly; insides, McMullen, Bryans; middles, Hughes, Cassells; outsides, Adelard, Sinclair.

McGill—Flying wing, Quilty; halves, Paisley, G. Laing, Jeffreys; quarter, Montgomery; scrimmage, Brown, McColl, Greenwood; insides, Reid, Doss; middles, Demuth, Williamson; outsides, Heath, Jt. Laing; spares, Pennock, Wollatt, Woods, Kelly, Ferguson, Forbes, McLaughlin, Roundwithe, Ryan, Todd, Kennedy.

Referee—Sink McEvenue, Montreal.
Umpire—Dr. W. B. Hendry, Toronto.

While Varsity and McGill are battling at the Stadium the Argonauts will be playing in Hamilton. Dutch Heuther and his men are confident that they can down the Tigers right in their own town. It should be a thrilling battle. Argonauts defeated Tigers in Hamilton this year already and are ready to repeat. Tigers claim that they were badly crippled when the scullers put over the win, but it must not be forgotten that Argonauts are a 50 per cent. better team now than they were then. The oarsmen are well supplied with excellent substitutes and it is here that they have it on any team in the Big Four. All the regulars are ready to start today and it will take a mighty good team to beat them.

The Argonauts have the best team that has represented the double blue in years and Toronto looks to them to bring back the Big Four title from Hamilton. The team will go up early this morning and a big crowd will follow later in the day. The teams:

Argonauts — Flying wing, Murphy; halves, Gonter, O'Connor, Smith or Bickle; quarter, Mills; scrimmage, Patterson, Davidson, Simpson; insides, McFarlane, Foster; middles, Burkart or Heuther, Motley; outsides, Mac Murray Knight.

Hamilton Tigers—Flying wing, Isbister; halves, Mellett, Manson, McKelvey; quarter, Dixon; scrimmage, Ireland, Moore, Wren; insides, Wilson, Wigle; middles, Smart, Clark; outsides, Glassford, Thompson.

Referee—Eddie Phillips.
Umpire—Percy Roberts.

Coach Walter Marriott is confident of a Tiger victory. Speaking yesterday, he said: "We'll win sure. The boys have never worked so hard as this week, and their efforts are sure to be crowned with success. With Wigle on the line we will be greatly improved, and there will be no cripples. This will be the first time we have placed a full fourteen on the field, and the Argos will be the team to suffer by it. Yes, I am quite sure we will win."

Hamilton Herald: The T.R. & A.A.-Ottawa muddle is thickening. Evidence advanced by the Ottawas St. Pats now has it that Vivian is a pro. playing under an assumed name, and the Torontos have proof that Bush of the St. Pats received money for wrestling. Both teams appear guilty, and there seems to be nothing else for the Ontario Union, to do but order the Rowing Club to tackle the Big Four champions in the Canadian semi-final.

Picking the Winner

(From The Montreal Herald.)

I read by the dope in The Evening Snooze
That if Laing is right then McGill can't lose,
And it looks to me like a right good choose.

But then I read by The Morning Wail
That Varsity's weight will tell the tale
And I hesitate to bet my kale.

But then I see by The Daily Squeak
That Shag's pet plays—both trick and freak,
Will make the blue and whites feel weak.

And Herr Gazook, in The Evening Meal,
He came to bat with the following squeal:
"McGill's too fast—that's how I feel."

Gazumph, who writes for The Daily Bread,
Says the grounds will kill our chances dead
And the stuff's all off, or so he said.

But the writer of The Daily Squawk
Declares, with much bulconic talk,
For a Varsity win in a walk.

I read them all, I read them long
And here's the burden of my song:
Oh, which is right and which is wrong?

And as o'er expert stuff I mope,
I breathe to myself a quiet hope
For a limit soon in the sale of dope.

Expect Natural Ice At Quebec Next Week

QUEBEC, Nov. 20.—There will be ice for skating at the Quebec Arena by the latter part of next week if the present weather conditions continue. This the owners of the Arena are confident of accomplishing if the cold snap continues thru this week.

The progress in ice-making at the Arena should not be retarded this season as it was last for the ground has been leveled and well prepared before the first flooding was put on.

Manager Quinn of the Quebec Hockey Club is delighted that efforts are being made to have ice at this early date, and it is probable that he will have his men report earlier this season than they ever have.

McGill Squad Arrive Twenty-Five Strong

McGill's players, numbering twenty-five, with Coach Frank Shaughnessy, arrived in Toronto last night for the big game with Varsity. An excursion of at least 100 McGill collegians are to arrive this morning, with plenty of the long green to place on their favorites. A special train from Kingston will also come with a big crowd from Queens.

Captain Ken Paisley, at the Prince George last night, said:

"No protest was laid by McGill against Charlie Gage. It was the officials who reported Gage, after the Toronto game, and we had nothing whatever to do with it. We were strongly against having Gage put out of the game, and we want to beat Varsity with their strongest team on the field, or else be beaten by them. There is no fun in playing half a team.

"The report came from Prof. McLeod in his official position as secretary of the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union and not from McGill at all."

Some changes in the line-up were announced. Greenwood and Reid will be in the scrimmage, and Brown at inside wing.

PASS UP A. RICHARDSON FOR JO-JO KEENAN

LONDON, Nov. [illegible] was reported in baseball circles yesterday on good authority that "Jo-Jo" Keenan of this city stands more than an ordinary chance of landing the managerial berth of the Hamilton Canadian League Club next season, even if Addie Richardson, a home product, is available. Keenan, tho a veteran, will be able to play some good baseball after having rested up for the past year. Josephus has many warm friends in the baseball world, especially in Hamilton, where he would be welcomed as a leader.

B.C. Wants Canadian Tennis Championships

VICTORIA, B.C., Nov. 20.—It was proposed by H. G. Garret at the annual meeting of the Victoria Tennis Club that the secretary should write to the management committee of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association asking that the Canadian championships be allotted to Victoria either in 1915 or 1916. The club decided to do this and confidence was expressed that the request would be granted.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Honorary president His Honor Lieutenant-Governor T. W. Paterson; honorary vice-president, Hon James Dunsmuir; president, Mr. W. P. Dickson; vice-president, Mr. H. G. Garret; committee, Messrs. J. G. Brown, S. G. Wheatley, T. Leeming, P. Cove, C. F. Phelan, F. J. Marshall, G. A. Kirk and V. C. Martin. The secretary-treasurer will later be appointed by the committee.

AGAINST A. A. U. RULE TO USE ASSUMED NAME

In view of the repeated publication of the statement that the Amateur Athletic Union authorities were cognizant of the fact that a player in the Ontario Rugby Football Union was competing under a name other than his own, and had sanctioned it, Secretary Trivett of the Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union has been directed to enquire of the Rugby Union what is the foundation for the story. He will also point out that this is a violation of the amateur law, which should receive immediate attention. It is, of course, not true that the amateur union knew of or sanctioned any such breach.

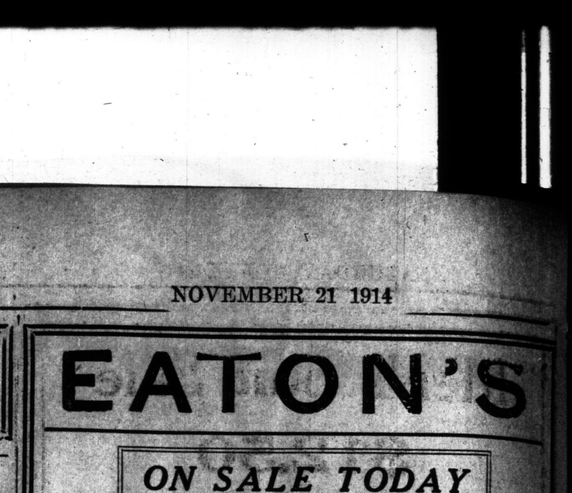
Great Clearance of Men's Fur and Fur-Lined Coats

At Less Than Cost of Production

This notable purchase involves many hundreds of coats that are a pleasure to examine for the fine peltry and superior workmanship in them. They come from one of the most particular and exclusive, as well as one of the largest, manufacturers on this continent; so the tailoring, fit, and style are of the best; included are some of the very highest-grade muskrat-lined coats we could offer, with a beaver-cloth shell that is almost as fine and rich as broadcloth; this huge purchase of coats has been marked, from the lowest to the highest priced, at a considerable percentage below actual cost of production. It's an opportunity that comes but seldom. It means that this is the year to buy furs.



Special at $17.50 — Black Beavercloth Coats, with southern muskrat or marmot lining, and Japanese otter or marmot storm collar in shawl or notch style. All remarkable values.

Special at $25.00 — Black Beavercloth Coats, with Canadian muskrat lining and Persian lamb collar.

Special at $45.00 — Black Beavercloth Coats with natural eastern muskrat lining and otter or Persian lamb collar.

Special at $50.00—Black Beavercloth Coats, otter or Persian lamb collar. The price little more than pays for the fine skins.

Special at $65.00—Black Beavercloth Coats, with that dark rich Russian "black rat" (extra dark, heavily-furred muskrat), or Hudson seal (dyed, sheared muskrat) lining and collars of otter, Persian lamb or seal-beaver.

Coonskin Fur Coats, with quilted sateen linings. Big special purchase clearing at less than cost of manufacture: $40.00, $50.00, $65.00, $75.00, $85.00, $90.00.

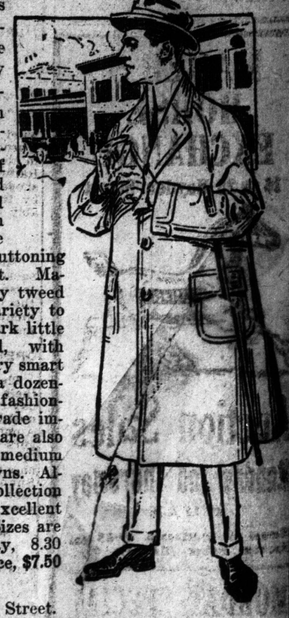
Men's and Young Men's Overcoats | Half-Price $7.50 to $16.25

The great variety is the feature of this offering, for there are few coats alike. They are all seasonable-weight coats, some with shoulder and sleeve lining, others lined throughout. Velvet or small self collar. Chesterfield styles with lapels and Balmacaan styles with plain or convertible lapels, or the fronts buttoning right up to the throat. Materials are mostly fancy tweed mixtures, but in a variety to suit most any man—dark little checks, light ground, with flaked pattern, some very smart diagonal weaves, and a dozen-and-one other new and fashionable effects in high-grade imported cloths. There are also blue naps, a few plain, medium and dark greys and fawns. Altogether a splendid collection of coats, showing excellent tailoring and style. Sizes are 34 to 42. Saturday, 8.30 o'clock special, half-price, $7.50 to $16.25.



Main Floor—Queen Street.
