The Quebec Chronicle having suggested that our shipbuilders should send a first class vessel to the Philadelphia Exhibition as a specimen of our mechanical skill, the Halifax Chronicle thinks that the Commissioners need give themselves no trouble about it, that at the docks of Philadelphia any day may be seen a large representation of the shipbuilding interests of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and that every day during the exhibition there will likely be a dozen or more ships in the Philadelphia harbor hailing from ports in the Maritime Provinces, not specimens of fancy work gotten up for the occasion, but staunch, strong and handsome vessels, commanded by Bluenose captains, and engaged in active service, discharging inward cargoes or loading grain, oil or other products. Our shipping is always well represented in Philadelphia, and will be at the time of the exhibition.

Instances of absconding are getting quite frequent of late, tending to make one believe that men's moral nature is subject to epidemics as much as their bodies are. The latest case of the kind that we have to chronicle is that of Mr. McGowan, doing business as grocer, under the style of McGowan & Hale, on St. Joseph street. Hale was never known here; McGowan started about a year ago, hailing from the land of the free. St. Albans was the scene of his labours previous to coming here, and his antecedents are none of the most creditable. Though nominally a grocer, Mr. McGowan was too ambitious to confine himself to any one line of operations, and he tested his credit freely among dry goods men, leather, carpet and other dealers. Fortunately, suspicions in most instances were aroused, and McGowan's little game has not worked so well as he probably anticipated, though no doubt he leaves some to mourn his loss.

The readiness with which the Canadian four per cent. loan has been subscribed in London attests the importance of a stable currency, says the New York Tribune. Mainly because her finance, are in good order, the new Dominion has found lenders on better terms than older nations whose currency is paper.
