SOCIETY

Sir Thomas and Lady Shaughness; entertained at dinner last week in honor of Mr. George Bury, the recently appointed vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Mrs. Bury, who are at present staying at the Ritz-Carlton.

The infant son of Lieut.-Col. Sir. Hamar and Lady Greenwood was christened in the crypt of the house of commons, England, recently. The ceremony was performed by Archdeacon Wilberforce, chaplain of the house of commons. The sponsors were the solicitor-general, Sir Stanley Buckmaster, Sir Gilbert Parker, M.P., Mr. Kenneth Mackenzie, and Miss Gladys Greenwood. The child received the name of David Henry Hamar.

Every seat in the theatre of the physics building was filled on Saturday night by the members of the Royal Canadian Institute, when "Submarines" was the subject of the lecture by Captain Hovgaard, lately an officer in the Danish navy, and now in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston. Captain Hovgaad is a recognized authority on his subject and was asked a great many questions at the close of the lecture, which was illustrated with lantern slides.
