SIMPLEX ONE-MAN TYPE SETTER

December, 1898...

Simplex in use in one State, on a weekly.

December, 1899...

Simplex in use in twenty-one States, on dailies, semi-weeklies, weeklies, class publications, etc.

In this day and age a new machine can not succeed unless it satisfactorily meets a want, and thereby deserves success.

The rapid strides of the SIMPLEX in one short year speak eloquently of its merits.

Publishers who want to increase their profits, handle news more fully at less expense, take the lead in their field, meet successfully the growing competition, and do so in the cheapest, easiest, most effective and most profitable way, should investigate the SIMPLEX at once.
