

He shall sign the minutes, after they have been approved of by the Council;

He shall not take part in any debate or vote, unless the Council be equally divided, in which case he may state facts, and give his reason for voting;

And when called upon to decide a point or Order or Practice, he shall state the Rule applicable to the case.

COUNCILLORS.

7TH. Every Councillor, previous to his speaking, shall rise from his seat uncovered, (except Quakers,) and respectfully address himself to the Warden.

8TH. In speaking every Councillor shall confine himself to the Question under discussion, and shall avoid all personality.

9TH. When two or more Councillors rise at the same time, the Warden shall name the Councillor who is to speak first.

10TH. Every Councillor who shall be present when a question is put, shall vote thereon unless excused by the Council.

11TH. When the Warden shall be putting a question, no Councillor shall walk out of or across the room, nor interrupt another Councillor when speaking, nor hold discourse which may interrupt him, nor pass between a speaker and the Chair.

12TH. When a Councillor is called to order, he shall immediately take his seat, unless permitted to explain; and should the Council be appealed to, they shall decide on the case.

13TH. Any Councillor may of right, require the Question or Motion in discussion to read for his information, but not so as to interrupt the Councillor speaking.

14TH. No Councillor shall speak more than twice on the same question, except such speaker as shall have been permitted to explain and the mover, who shall have the right of reply.

15TH. When any Councillor shall violate any of the rules and orders of the Council, and the Council shall have determined that he have so transgressed, he shall not be allowed to speak during the discussion, except to explain and apologize.

MOTIONS AND QUESTIONS.

16TH. Motions and questions, shall be put by the Warden.

17TH. All motions, (except for adjournment and the adoption of reports), shall be in writing, with the names of the mover and seconder written thereon.

18TH. After a motion is read by the Warden, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Council, but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment with permission of the Council.

19TH. When a motion shall have been made and carried, either in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order, at any time during the Session, to move for a reconsideration, which motion, if second-
