

ARTICLE 7th.

That no proposal to alter or amend any part of this Constitution shall be entertained, without having been notified at a previous meeting; and that no such proposal shall be carried except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.