

DE LA SALLE KIDS BRING HOME A TWO-GOAL LEAD

IRISH KIDS GATHER TWO-GOAL MARGIN

Defeat Peterboro, Seven to Five, in Third Round. Fixture.

Peterboro, Feb. 15.—The De la Salle Juniors were the winners in the first game of the third round which was played here tonight in Brock street rink. The score was 7 to 5 and the Toronto aggregation should have little difficulty in increasing the margin on Tuesday night next.

The locals played a good game, but they were outclassed by the visitors, who had weight and speed in their favor. The De la Salle team was supported in spite of the recent thaw and the 500 fans who crowded into the rink, augmented by about 100 De la Salle supporters from Toronto, got their money's worth.

The Peterboro team worked hard, but the odds were against them and they went down before a superior team of championship calibre. Greet and Dye for the De la Salle played a grand game and were a whole team in themselves. On several occasions they carried the battle right into the Peterboro net and paved the way for a goal. Chert and Murray worked hard for the locals and succeeded in holding the score down. The teams:

UNIVERSITY SCHOOL MEET DUNNVILLE

In Second Round of Junior Series—Port Colborne All Right.

At a meeting of the sub-committee of the O.H.A., held yesterday, with the president, Sheriff J. F. Panter, in the chair, the protest against the Port Colborne Club was discussed. The charge against Earl Myers, for a breach of residence rule, not being sustained. Port Colborne will, therefore, play the postponed return game with Galt at Port Colborne next Tuesday night. Galt has a lead of one goal on the first game.

The protested game between Seaford and Mitchell will be replayed tonight at Seaford, and the winner will play at home against Woodstock next Tuesday night. The return game at Woodstock on Friday night. Harrington A. Tuer will not be allowed to play for Mitchell, there being some doubt as to his age. In regard to the Sarnia-Kitchener controversy, the committee decided to take no action. The Sarnia Club has been ordered to pay the claim of the Kitchener Club for defaulting the game at Kitchener Jan. 30.

In the junior series, University Schools of Toronto will play at Dunnville next Wednesday night, the return game in Toronto at the Arena on Friday night. Ken Marsh will referee both games. Kitchener will play at Barrie Tuesday night, the return game at Kitchener Friday night. Lawson Whitehead will referee both games.

AFTER NEW CHAMPION.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Bob Cannefax, St. Louis, won from Pierre Maupome, Cleveland, in the consolation fund three cushion billiard tournament today, 50 to 49. Both men are challengers of Augie Kleckner for the title. It was the third 50 to 49 game for Cannefax in two days. Orr and Capron, winning from him by that score yesterday.

John Moore, Chicago, defeated Ray Palmer yesterday he could not take it. Palmer held his own until Moore made a run of 12.

CRESCENTS MUST WIN THIS CONTEST

A Dental Victory Tonight Will Give Them the Group Honors.

The Crescent-Dental Corps game at the Arena tonight has aroused more interest among hockey fans than any other senior O. H. A. fixture this season. The Crescents were dangerously close to upsetting the calculations of the champions in their last engagement. Half way thru the game the red and white were leading by 3 to 0. Condition told, however, and the black-clad crew, finishing with rare courage, snatched a one-goal victory from the Half-Moons in the closing minutes of the contest. The Crescents have since had two hard games. Their players are in so much better shape that they have every confidence in their ability to even matters with the All-Cup holders, with whom they have two more games. The Dentals will present their best front, of course, and by dint of downing their rivals on this occasion they will earn the right to meet Kitchener in the finals. It is a case of do or die with the Crescents. They will enter the fray with just that kind of a spirit and a battle royal is assured. In order to get a line on their opponents for the senior O. H. A. finals several players and officials of the Kitchener Club will be in attendance.

Frank ("Coach") Allen, coach of the Riversides, and trainer of the De la Salle O. H. A. junior team this season, has joined the Crescents. Allen has been coaching for several weeks. "Coach" has done much for athletics in Toronto, but he has worked quietly, and has not looked for praise. Whenever the "kid" teams at Riversides A. wanted to play for "Coach" took them in charge. He has handled boxers, lacrosse players, rugby players and hockey players, and is popular wherever he goes.

Art Ross, former Wanderer hockey player, visited by Ottawa for the game with Canadiens at Montreal Saturday night. He was a great player, and at such short notice. He says he is out of training and the only thing he could do was to get a few minutes of practice. He was a great player, and at such short notice. He says he is out of training and the only thing he could do was to get a few minutes of practice.

The Ottawa Citizen says: "The Ottawa Hockey Club has lost two out of three games since the return of the Senators and is still confident that they will capture the honors from the Toronto and Canadiens teams. The Ottawa is two games behind the blue shirts and on equal terms with Canadiens the fact should not be overlooked that the Toronto still have two matches to be played on the road and two at home. In fact, the results of the contests tomorrow night and Monday may cause another complete upheaval in the place Ottawa. It will be a great game, and the Ottawa hockey patrons to know that Frank McKelvey was only injured in Wednesday's match. Dr. Davies, who has been attending Neighbor, feared for a time that Neighbor would prove serious, but Neighbor was all right yesterday, the confined to his bed. It is doubtful if he will be able to play in Montreal tomorrow, the he will probably accompany the team. With Neighbor in line Ottawa's chance of victory would be first-class.

McKell, the Ottawa hockey player who was accused of having played in Renfrew under an assumed name on Jan. 25, was reinstated Thursday night by the Ottawa City Hockey League. Secretary Nichol of the Munition Club announced that McKell was signed by McKell, in which he denied playing at Renfrew on Jan. 25 under an assumed name. However, it was explained by Commissioner Gill, to whom McKell had gone in the matter, that McKell had admitted playing at Renfrew on that evening, but he said that he was in no way responsible for the appearance of McKell in the press. McKell was reinstated. The commission accepted the affidavit in the absence of substantial proof to the negative and McKell was reinstated.

By a one-goal margin, secured by a lone rush of Alex. Irvin in the last few minutes of play, the Ypres managed to win from the Sommes Thursday night and maintained their prestige as champions of the Winnipeg Military Hockey League, the score being 7 to 6.

STAY IN MAJORS IS SHORT AND SWEET

Only Fifteen Working of Twelve Years' Standing During Last Year.

Twelve years is a long time in the life of a major league ball player. If one may base his estimate on some statistics furnished by a baseball docteur, who has compiled a record that shows how few players in the majors in 1916 can still be counted actively in the game. Commenting on his own record, the statistician says:

It seems scarcely possible that out of 300 men drawing salaries in the American and National Leagues in 1916 only 15 played ball in 1917, and four of these probably will not be seen in 1918. And that is the space of only 12 years. Only 15 of the American League pitchers of 1916, who included Waddell, Sullivan, Joss, Chesbro and others, only three, Bender, Plank and Combs, were able to pitch in the majors in 1917. One other, Donovan, managed a big league club.

Of the National League pitchers of 1916, Reulbach and Ames were the only ones who saw service in 1917, and Reulbach pitched very little at Boston, and Ames was still active in baseball as manager of the Reds. Mathewson was still active in baseball as manager of the Reds. Mathewson was still active in baseball as manager of the Reds.

In the outfield, five still played in 1917. Cobb is among them, and is still the greatest of all ball players. The others are Crawford, who has about the end of the road; Nincmnan, who is still in the game, but not active; and Schulte, who had a short season last year, and Sherwood Magee, Carroll, who played in the majors, but not in the majors, but not in the majors.

This is a striking picture of the length of time a big league player may have to remain in the game. In most of them are gone, and all, with the exception of Cobb, are fading. Twelve years means a great deal to a ball player.

YALE HAS RIGHT SPIRIT; WILL KEEP UP BASEBALL.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S FOR OTTAWA CLUB

Montreal West Club Defeated by Eight Shots in the Final.

Ottawa, Feb. 15.—To the Ottawa Curling Club goes the governor-general's curling prize for the year 1918. After an exciting final, played here this afternoon on the ice of the Rideau Curling Club, the Ottawas defeated the Montreal West Club representatives by a margin of eight shots and thus captured the glory of honors of the eastern centre. The final score stood 37 to 29, the Ottawas being 8 up on one rink and tying them on the other. For a junior club, competition was a grand showing, eliciting early played shots and receiving congratulations at the finish from hundreds who had gathered to witness the big event in curling circles. The Ottawas played a superb game from start to finish, and it was fortunate that they did so, as Montreal West proved somewhat of a surprise and would have defeated any other than a first-class double rink combination. Practically all the local curling enthusiasts attended and the match, from every standpoint proved an immense success.

Ordinarily, the governor-general's final, which is for a silver cup, presented by His Excellency the Governor-General, takes place at the Rideau Hall rink. It was to have been played there, this year, but owing to the death of Governor-General Lord Borden, the late Sir Cecil Spring-Rice it was transferred to the neutral ice of the Rideau. It was the neutral ice of the Rideau. It was the neutral ice of the Rideau. It was the neutral ice of the Rideau.
