The City of Toronto Gets Stuck in an Action for Damages—A Matter of Interest to Police Constables.

The effect of an undertaking, or perhaps, better stated, the effect of incautiously dealing with an undertaking, again troubled the Divisional Court yesterday. The action was by one Reesor and five other plaintiffs, creditors of defendant Wilson, against Wilson and A. W. Shields, who held a chattel mortgage and was selling the goods. An injunction was granted restraining sale, and the usual undertaking given by counsel that the plaintiffs would be responsible for any damages the defendant Shields might sustain. The action was dismissed, with costs, but in the meantime some of the plaintiffs declared that they had not instructed the action to be brought. It was referred to a referee to ascertain the damages Shields had sustained, and the referee reported that on the reference before him the plaintiff Robinson and defendant Shields had agreed that Robinson was to be liable for one-sixth of the damages, and had settled for it, and that the other plaintiffs were liable for the other five-sixths, amounting to $402. On a motion for judgment on this report, Mr. Justice Rose held that the effect of this little agreement before the referee was to discharge the other plaintiffs from all liability by reason of the undertaking. Shields appeals. The point is an extremely delicate one, and the court reserved its judgment.

A FLOODED CELLAR.

The city must pay Mr. and Mrs. Essex the amount ($125) awarded to them by Judge Morgan, and also the costs of the appeal of the corporation to the Divisional Court. The plaintiffs allege that in March last the cellar of their house on Emerson-street was flooded, and that it was owing to the negligence of the defendants in not keeping open the street entrances to the sewers. Counsel for the city contended that the flood was so sudden last March that the debris stopped the gratings, and that the corporation had no notice of the stoppage, and, at all events, the damage was occasioned by surface water, and, therefore, the city was not responsible. The trial took two days; 15 witnesses were examined, whose depositions are contained in 133 typewritten pages. The gallant fight to save the taxpayer was all to no purpose. The court dismissed the appeal, with costs, without calling on Mr. DuVernet for the plaintiffs, who had a host of authorities to cite, if necessary.

OF INTEREST TO POLICEMEN.

The appeal to the Court of Appeal of the defendants in Miller v. Hamilton Police Benefit Fund is of interest to many besides policemen. It is another case of somebody being to blame for using language so as to conceal the intention of the parties. The deceased entered the Hamilton force in 1889, and was a member at time of his death. Three per cent. of his salary, as well as that of the other members of the force, had always been deducted to form a benefit fund. The question was whether, under the wording of the rules as to the disposition of the fund, his widow and children got any, and, if so, what share of the fund. The Divisional Court held that they were entitled to share in the fund when it reached $8000, and gave them $1300, overruling the trial judge's decision, which gave them only $175 as their share of the amount of the fund at the time of plaintiff's death. Judgment was reserved.

Sydney, N.S.W., Sept. 30.—The fifteen-ton sloop Spray, which sailed from Boston in 1895, with Captain Joshua Slocum as its only occupant, arrived at Newcastle, N.S. W., to-day. Captain Slocum, after sailing from Boston, proceeded to Gibraltar, from which place he re-crossed the Atlantic and passed through the Straits of Magellan into the South Pacific Ocean, thence to Australia. Captain Slocum will visit this port, Melbourne, and Adelaide, after which he will return to America.

Barge Foundered—Four Drowned.

Milwaukee, Sept. 30.—The large barge Sumatra foundered off the Government pier this morning and four of the crew were drowned. The dead are all from West Bay City, Mich. The tug Simpson rescued the Sumatra as the latter foundered. The tug men succeeded in rescuing the cook and mate and captain from the wreckage.

Women's Historical Society.

Mrs. Curzon, Mrs. Morrison and Miss Fitzgibbon waited upon the Ontario Government yesterday and asked that a room be allotted in the Parliament buildings to the Ladies' Historical Society. It is likely that the request will be granted.

The first open meeting of the society for the season will be held in the Y.W.C.A. Hall at 8 p.m. on Oct. 9. Premier Hardy is expected to be present and give an address.

Business Embarrassments.

The Canadian creditors of the Gates Lumber Co. of Bay City, Mich., met yesterday in Assignee E. R. C. Clarkson's office. The statement shows assets of $600,000 and liabilities of $500,000. The estate is to be wound up.

C. P. Campbell, dry goods, Hepworth, has assigned to J. F. Langley. Creditors will meet on the 6th inst.

The creditors of Foster, Pender & Co. will meet in the office of E. R. C. Clarkson this afternoon for the purpose of giving instructions for the distribution of the funds in hand, proceeds of the goods sold, and particularly with reference to Mr. Bick's claim as to the persons amongst whom the distribution is to be made.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch to-day from Chicago: Wheat opened firm this morning at 67⅝c for December, a good cent over last night's closing. Cables were firmer and there were a good many outside buying orders. For the first hour the market was dull and December sold down to 67⅝c; this proved low point and on liberal buying by commission houses and scared shorts the market advanced sharply and sold up to 68¾c, a recovery of over 2 cents. The storm last night shut off any communication with the Northwest, and the big holders took advantage of this to put the market up. Prices are now out of line with export business, although English markets keep following us up, and closing cables are 1d to 1d higher. The market is broadening and offers rare opportunities and we think on fair reactions wheat is a purchase.

Corn and Oats—Both markets acted steady, but quiet, ranging within ½c. Cash demand fairly good. Local receipts were 613 cars corn and 412 cars oats.

Provisions—Markets opened steady, and fell off some, caused by the heavy receipts of hogs and freer offerings, but the presence of some speculation and higher grain markets maintained prices, and in some cases advanced them. Packers sold moderately. Cash trade reported not so good.
