Bay of Islands the Spot.

St. John's, Nfd., Dec. 27.—American fishing vessels are leaving Placentia Bay for the Bay of Islands, owing to the scarcity of herring in the former bay, and their great abundance in the latter. Already 42 vessels have sailed from the Bay of Islands, fully laden. It is expected that the Gloucester vessels will proceed there. A severe frost now prevails, and herring will be frozen in a night or two.

And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you; and are over you in the Lord, and admon-ish you; and to esteem them very highly in love for this work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. So St. Paul wrote to the Thessalonians So Bishop Sweatman exhorted to the peo-ple last night at the induction and insti-

The beautiful sanctuary never looked brighter; the Christmas decorations were stim tresh, and the many electric lights, senning through and amongthem, made the chancel particularly inviting. The surpliced chorus singers, amigling the timi faisetto of the youth with the robust bass of the adult, rendered hymns and anthems, with refreshing vigor. The Bishop and many of the clergy, with the insigna of their authority, and the new rector, with thoughtful countenance, weighing the responsibilities about to be taken up, presented an imposing, impressive array. A large congregation was present, but the only church warden visible was T. S. Irving.

Service Began With Singing.

The service began at 8.30, when the choir, singing, walked in procession to their seats. After them came the clergy, and last of all Bisnop Sweatman. The hymn ended, the Bishop addressed the people as follows:

Brethren, we are here assembled to witness the solemn institution of the Reverend Edward Ashurst Weich to the cure of sonis within this parish, he having been duly, canonically and legally appointed to the same, and there being no impediment alleged.

The Rev. E. A. Weich then sead his assent to the induction. The Bishop sank into his massive chair, which had been placed on the edge of the chancel; the new incumbent knelt before him and held up the instrument of institution, which the Bishop read aloud.

Bishop's Blessing.

The Bishop, then arose and gave his blessing to the new rector, kneeling before him. The blessing was as follows: Almighty God, who hath moved thee to take upon thee this ministry, and hath called thee to exercise it in this place, grant to thee surength and power to fulfill it to the glory of God and the good of souls, that in so doing thou mayest both save thyself and them that hear thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The new incumbent was then presented with the Bible and book of common prayer by the Bishop, who instructed him to be in all things a pattern to the flock committed to his care.

The Rev. Dr. Langtry, rural dean, read the mandate of induction, and was followed by the Bishop, who said; In the name and on behalf of the parish, we do 'now induct you into the real, actual and corporeal possession of the incumbency of the said parish, and of all the rights, privileges and in token thereof, we give into your hands the keys of this church.

Churchnan T. S. Irving presented the large iron key of the Cathedral to the new from among the Toronto volunteers.

Bright and early a couple of hundred strupping healthy looking chaps presented themselves as volunteers, and the task of selecting from among them the number required was immediately commenced. The men were all lined up in single flie and Lieut. Col. Kitson, Major Young, acting D. O.C., and Surgeon-Major Nattress walked down the rank, picking out the most likely looking ones, who were then ordered to fall out and report for medical inspection. The majority of those chosen are members of the Governor-General's Body Guard, and the balance is made up of civilians, examembers of the N.W.M.P., and soldiers who have left their corps. Their names were taken and they were told to come back in the afternoon and appear before Dr. Nattress. Altogether about 37 men were picked and of these 28 were examined and pronounced fit and the rest will come up this morning.

John McCulia served for several years in the Northwest Mounted Police and was one of the first chosen.

Considerable speculation is rife among the men of the R.C.D., as to who will be the sergeants of their troop. It is generally thought, however, that Sergt.-Major Sparks will be appointed squadron sergeant-major and Sergts Skinner and Rose, the latter of whom has been ordered to Toronto from Winnipeg, sergeants of the troop. The appointment of these men to the positions named would be a popular move.

As to what effect the change in the establishment of the contingent will have, the officers here are not prepared to say. Some, though, express the opinion that the mounted infantry will be divided so that there will be a couple more of troops. This will not necessitate the securing of additional volunteers, but simply the appointment of a couple more officers.

The British Government has chartered the steamer for another trip, and she is expected to leave here about Jan 20.
